Too Much Tradition is What Some Communities Suffer From; Pioneer Spirit Now Needed More Than Ever in This Country

Henry Ford in his book tells how in the great Ford plant the record of every unsuccessful experiment is quickly destroyed in order that there may be no bar to human invention and progress.

Too many people think that because a thing has never been done before, or because someone has tried it and failed, it can never be done.

Banting went against much medical tradition, pioneered in metabolism and conquered diabetes.

Farraday discovered the principle of the dynamo one hundred years ago. But no one bothered much about it until forty years later when an Italian built the first dynamo to be followed by Steinmetz, who died the other day and who with his vision was largely responsible for bringing that machine up to its state of efficiency and human service during the last thirty years.

Thornton tackled a job, which many, through tradition, declared to be hopeless; already the country is beginning to point with pride to its Canadian National Railways.

Too much tradition in community life and public attitude holds back many places. It is another way of saying that they are "in a rut." The enthusiastic, progressive communities and institutions are most often those where tradition is at a discount, where things are being done because they were never done before.

Canada in these days of after-war reconstruction should foster that pioneer spirit displayed by the fathers of this country. They launched out into what in their experience had never been done before and got this country off to a flying start. The opportunities and resources are here. They call for daring and courageous spirits with a broader vision to blaze the way to development.

Forget some of the things which you have been told cannot be done.

American exporters are showing concern because Canada is underselling them in wheat. Export wheat in Vancouver is being sold for $2 a ton less than in Seattle and the business is coming to the Canadian side.

Ten years from now, with its present rate of growth in population, United States will have ceased to be a wheat-exporting country. All the foreign wheat trade will be Canadian.

At the rate the Western crop is increasing, half a billion bushels of it this year, Canada's Pacific Coast ports will have a mighty big trade to handle.

Curator Dittmars, of Bronx Zoo, famous authority on wild life, sends out warning that all wild animals will soon be extinct. One Eastern editor, commenting on this, says that except for the fur, it is difficult to see where the world will be the poorer. That editor talks as if he had never been in the woods or among the mountains. The wild life is one of the great assets of this Province, besides being the source of a considerable industry. That is why British Columbia has a game board working double time just now to protect it and has been talking a closed season of several years' duration to make that protection effective.

Besides, if there were no more cougars, what would the cougar story newspaper reporters do?

JEWELRY WORTH 150,000 FRANCS STOLEN IN PARIS

Paris, Nov. 8.—Jewelry worth 150,000 francs was taken from the hotel room of Marquesa de Jura Resl, a relative of the Spanish Ambassador to France, some time yesterday.

AIRMAN DECLARES PLANES WILL MAKE 300 MILES AN HOUR

Paris, Nov. 8.—Sadi Le Coq, the French ace, said today he was convinced a speed of 300 miles an hour by aeroplane was possible and would be exceeded before long. He announced that he was having an engine installed in his machine which would enable him to fly at a greater speed than was recently attained by the United States fliers, Lieut. Williams and Brown.

SMUTS MAY ASSIST GREATLY IN SOLVING EUROPEAN PROBLEMS

London, Nov. 8.—General Smuts, Premier of South Africa, had intended to sail for home to-morrow, but he has postponed his departure from London for at least a week. There is reason to believe his delay in leaving for home is due to advice from the continent indicating the possibility that he may be able to contribute effectively to the solution of the European situation.

Premier Smuts is in close co-operation with the British Foreign Office, and it is believed also that he is in close touch with continental representatives who are entitled to speak on behalf of their respective Governments.

Washington, Nov. 8.—Further conversations between Ambassador Jusserand and Secretary of State Hughes about the proposed German reparations inquiry are regarded as entirely probable within the next few days unless some definite conclusion is reached meantime in the exchanges proceeding between London and Paris. The Ambassador has forwarded a report of yesterday's conversation with Secretary Hughes to his Foreign Office in Paris, with a request for more detailed information on some points, and a reply is expected within a day or two.

The most important point under discussion involves a definition and clear understanding of the phrase "protection capacity" of Germany to pay reparations as applied to the authority of the new expert committee of inquiry.

Report Awaited
Washington, Nov. 8.—Beyond the fact that discussions between the Washington and Paris Governments are continuing, there was no indication here to-day as to what progress is being made in the effort to clear the way for an agreement on the scope of the proposed expert inquiry into the reparations question.

A detailed explanation of the French position has been laid before officials here. After receiving this in a half-hour conference with Ambassador Jusserand, late yesterday Secretary Hughes avoided any comment whatever on the outlook, while the French Ambassador confined himself to the statement that the conversations were continuing, adding that "when there is a definite result it will be brought to your notice."

President Informed
The Secretary went directly from the conference to the White House and reported developments to President Coolidge.

The fact that the exchange of views here with the French Government continues is accepted in some quarters as indicating at least that hope is still retained of conciliating the American and French positions.

CONTINUE FREIGHT RATE EFFORTS

Vancouver Board of Trade Assures Government of Support

Vancouver, Nov. 8.—Following a complete review of the case for equalized freight rates, members of the Vancouver Board of Trade last night confirmed past actions of its council and assured the Provincial Government of continued support in the fight until discriminations have been entirely removed.

G. G. McGeer, K.C., counsel for British Columbia at the freight rate hearings; J. B. Thomson, president of the Board of Trade, and W. F. McClellan, chairman of the transportation bureau, drove home the fact that high freight rates in British Columbia, without justification in their application, are throttling development in western Canada, are a violation of the terms of Confederation and are preventing Canada from enjoying long-overdue prosperity.

Upon the Canadian Pacific Railway alone, Mr. McGeer placed responsibility for the opposition which exists to the rectifying of rates.

PREFERENCE PLAN INCLUDES WINES

Extension of Trade Proposals Debated by Empire Conference To-day

British Duties Dependent on Decision of Parliament

London, Nov. 8.—The Empire Economic Conference decided to-day to extend the imperial preference to all wines of a certain alcoholic standard from the Dominions.

London, Nov. 8 (Special Cable to the Canadian Press by George Hambleton, Staff Correspondent).—Attacked by Free Traders as a tax on the poor man's lunch, Great Britain's new preference proposals already are the centre of controversy.

The Daily News estimates that as a result of the preference, every pound tin of salmon and every pound of honey from outside the Empire will cost a penny more wholesale. Every quart bottle of fruit juice will rise three halfpence, according to The News, and every pound of foreign apples a halfpenny.

The Westminster Gazette says: "One by one the deficiencies of the working class table are being added to the things to be taxed, added to foods that will cost more to buy."

Parliamentary Sanction
None of the preference proposals will become effective until they have received parliamentary sanction. They will therefore either have to run the gauntlet of the coming session of Parliament or if legislation is delayed until the budget is brought down, they will probably be dependent on the issue of the general election. Indeed, a wing of the Conservative Party is understood to be strongly pressing for dissolution this week-end to avoid meeting Parliament at all.

DISCUSSING NEW LIQUOR LEGISLATION

Premier and Attorney-General of Alberta Considering Commission

Edmonton, Nov. 8.—Premier Greenfield is authority for the statement that the Government of Alberta is at once attacking the problem of liquor legislation and administration in view of the recent vote. The Premier and the Attorney-General are to-day conferring over the question of what organization will be necessary, including it is understood, the matter of a special liquor commission and the number and distribution of vendors' stores.

Just what will be done in the way of preparing legislation is a point on which Mr. Greenfield is reserving his opinion. The first thing to be done, he said, was to look carefully into the situation and to talk it over and that was being done without delay.

In the meantime would-be beer sellers are already bestirring themselves. The Attorney-General's Department has received three applications for beer licenses from as many individuals who are apparently under the impression that the vote on Monday settled the whole matter and opened the way for immediate incorporation of a new brewery by system.

GOVERNMENT DEMANDS ABOLITION OF DUTY BETWEEN PROVINCES

Emphatic demand that the Federal Government appoint a Canadian Customs officer in New York and stop the charging of duty on goods shipped from Eastern Canada to this Coast by water is made in a strongly worded resolution which will be introduced in the Legislature to-day by Premier Oliver.

The Premier's resolution declares that the duty now charged on goods shipped from one part of Canada to the other is directly in violation of the British North America Act and "inflicts an unnecessary hardship both upon the Eastern producer and the Western purchaser."

ROBBERS HELD TOWNSMEN AT BAY AND LOOTED BANK

Ogden, Kas., Nov. 8.—Holding townsmen at bay for two hours early to-day, bandits blew the safe of the Ogden State Bank and escaped with an unknown amount of cash, Liberty Bonds and other valuables. The robbers numbered from eight to ten men. Before the robbery all telephone and telegraph wires leading into the town were cut.

SUGGESTS NEW FERRY LINK

Branch of Canadian Highway Association to be Revived

Sidney-Steveston Connection is Now Sought

An endeavor to establish a ferry from Steveston to Sidney, with ports of call on the Gulf Islands, will be one of the objectives of the proposed revival of the Canadian Highway Association, for which purpose a meeting has been called for Tuesday afternoon.

Reason For Meeting
The effort of the Provincial Ministers in Ontario to push construction of the 750 miles from Sault Ste. Marie to follow the north shore of Lake Superior to connect with Manitoba roads, which are building to the shore, has inspired Alderman Todd to call a meeting. The object is to revive the Canadian Highway Association movement, which had its origin in 1912, when the Island Highway was marked with posts from Victoria to Port Alberni.

Meanwhile the gradual linking of Canada by road proceeds, the greatest gap being in the wilderness along the Great Lakes.

There is a tendency in the East to give no credit to the work that has already been done on Vancouver Island, where 135 miles of the highway is already part of the trunk system to which it is hoped to add extensions to the West Coast from Port Alberni and from Jordan River.

The object of the meeting is to endeavor to secure adequate publicity as to what has already been done, and to add to the trunk road system embraced in the transcontinental system the paved East Road from Sidney to Victoria. This will bring into line the recent developments in transportation on Mainland by way of Sidney to Beltingham and Anacortes.

MURDOCK WILL NOT INTERVENE IN COAST STRIKE

Vancouver, Nov. 8.—All hope of Hon. James Murdock, Minister of Labor, intervening in the longshoremen's strike was dispelled by a telegram received this morning by Mayor Tisdall in reply to one asking the personal attendance and mediation of the Minister.

Hon. Mr. Murdock condemns the action of the longshoremen in going on strike and intimates that their only hope is for leniency in re-employment by the shipping federation.

In view of the fact that, as reported to him from other sources, the shipping federation has now enough men to handle the work he refused to insist on compliance with the demands of the union that all the men be taken back.

He urges the federation however, to deal sympathetically with the former employees and re-employ as many of them as possible.

Paris Government Would Not Tolerate German Experiment

Bavarian Bands Reported About to March

Paris, Nov. 8.—The French Government has instructed its Ambassador in Berlin to inform the German Government that France would not tolerate the establishment of a dictatorial Government in Germany.

The action of the French Government apparently has reference to the recently reported demands from the nationalist factions in Bavaria for the establishment of a Nationalist dictatorship for Germany.

The regime to which France is opposed is a reactionary military dictatorship, agitation for which has been uncommonly active in Germany for the last few weeks.

London, Nov. 8.—The Berlin correspondent of The Times telegraphed forward a dispatch from Munich which says the Bavarian regulars have decided to march on Berlin to-morrow.

OLIVER CHALLENGES ACCUSERS TO MAKE DEFINITE CHARGES

Premier, Answering Demand For His Resignation, Dares Hinchliffe to Take Manly Course in P.G.E. Attack; No Attempt Made to Block Full Inquiry. He Declares, Replying to Conservatives' Royal Commission Plan

When Conservatives in the Legislature yesterday launched a broadside attack on the administration of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway, demanding investigation into P.G.E. affairs by a Royal Commission, they were met with a ringing challenge from Premier Oliver to make definite charges of wrongdoing by the Government—a challenge which remained unanswered.

"Let him take the manly course and prefer specific charges and the House can order an investigation if it sees fit," Premier Oliver exclaimed after he had listened patiently to the demand of Joshua Hinchliffe, Conservative member for Victoria, that he should resign until he was cleared of P.G.E. accusations.

No attempt had been made by the Government to block a full investigation of P.G.E. matters by the Public Accounts Committee of the House, the Premier declared emphatically.

Answering Mr. Hinchliffe's demand that the books of the Northern Construction Company, builders of the P.G.E., should be produced, the Premier retorted that no definite charge had been made against the company.

MAY HAVE ELECTION BEFORE CHRISTMAS

London Newspapers Say Test May Come That Soon in Britain

Unionists and Labor Organizations Are Ready

London, Nov. 8 (Canadian Press Cable).—More than one paper this morning repeats the suggestion that the general election may come before Christmas.

"Panic-stricken by the force of the Free Trade speeches delivered in the last few days," is the condition of those prepared to support the Premier, according to The Daily News, which will have nothing to do with protection and thinks the protectionists are eager to jockey the Premier into a snap election.

Another suggestion abroad is that a full meeting of the Unionist Party ought to be called, but this has encountered a rather poor reception from a section of the party's own press, which regards the demand as submitted by a rather fussy minority.

Both the Unionist and Labor organizations express themselves as fully prepared for a rush election and, indeed, have made arrangements for such an emergency.

A wing of the Conservative Party is understood to be pressing for dissolution this week-end.

NO PROHIBITION GAIN IN SCOTLAND

In All Except Few Towns "Wets" Defeated "Drys"

London, Nov. 8.—It is clear prohibition is not advancing very rapidly in Scotland. Judging from the results already compiled in the local option vote taken in forty-three towns this week, the liquor dealers and their customers have every cause for satisfaction. In all except a few places the "wets" not only defeated the "drys" but increased the victory they scored in the last contest three years ago.

The utmost efforts of the pro-liquor element, however, failed to shake the resolution of the residents of Mungavie and Girkintulloch, who reaffirmed their faith in prohibition. On the other hand, the small town of Auchtermuchty, in Perth, decided to revert to the column of the "wets" after a narrow contest with the "drys."

Two places which on the last occasion voted in favor of partial license restriction adhered to this decision. Aberdeen proved an utterly hopeless proposition for the "drys," deciding for liquor by a four-fifths majority in each of the eleven wards into which the city is divided.

Many other towns are yet to be heard from.

London, Nov. 8.—More brain power is wasted by inventors than by any other class of people, says Sir John

DR. THACHER'S GREAT TONIC

QUICK RELIEF IN NUMEROUS TESTS

HIS PRESCRIPTION IS GIVING HAPPINESS TO THOUSANDS

Stubborn Cases of Indigestion, Nervousness, Constipation and Run-Down Health Yield to Celebrated Vegetable Tonic.

With hundreds of persons now telling of their own personal experience as evidence of relief, there is little wonder that druggists throughout this section report a marked increase in the use of the great vegetable tonic made famous by Dr. H. B. Thacher, distinguished American physician.

There's an excellent reason why druggists brought it here to sell under a standing guarantee. Dr. Thacher's tonic contains a combination of the finest health building ingredients known to modern medical science—prescribed by the most eminent doctors in the United States and Canada.

PUT TO MANY TESTS
Test after test has been made. Reports in more than 500 cases of record indicate that Dr. Thacher's tonic gives quick relief in cases of indigestion, nervousness, constipation and a general run-down condition of the system.

Records of leading druggists show that of every 2000 bottles sold there has been an average of less than two returns. Yet every bottle of Dr. Thacher's tonic (known as Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup) is sold with the understanding that the purchase price will be returned without question unless this tonic gives quick, complete satisfaction.

Following are reports taken at random from the test cases of record. All statements are confined to the statements of those who actually used it. Names, addresses and complete information regarding these tests will be furnished those personally interested.

DR. H. B. THACHER
Celebrated American Physician who Proved that Symptoms such as those described in this article can be relieved quickly with purely vegetable ingredients and without the treacherous use of dangerous or habit forming drugs.

In a few days after taking Dr. Thacher's tonic (a spoonful in a wineglass of water after meals), he felt fine again. "My appetite is hearty," he said, "and my digestion fine. My nerves are steady, and I can sleep the night through without rolling and tossing in bed. I am no longer constipated, weak and induced a pleasant, gentle and thorough movement of the bowels. As the dosage was gradually cut down the patient's bowels continued to move regularly and the patient was soon able to 'ease off' it down entirely.

"This tonic has certainly struck the keynote of my troubles. I am never nervous, 'headachy' or dizzy now. My bowels invariably move twice every day and I feel so much better."

Could Dr. Thacher Quickly Help You Feel Fine Again?

Did you ever stop to consider why you feel badly at times? Why on certain days you feel weak, cheerful, steady, or miserable? The answer is in the state of your digestion. When you wake up dull, tired and "headachy"—why people suffer at times from indigestion, constipation, nervousness and the many symptoms of a sluggish liver and acid condition of the stomach and blood.

There is a cause! And your trouble CAN BE CORRECTED, often quickly, if you start the right treatment in time.

Read the article on the left showing how Dr. Thacher's tonic has accomplished in 500 actual tests of record.

NERVOUSNESS
Case 53—Because of her nervous condition this woman was unable to get refreshing sleep or properly digest meals. Food soured on her stomach, bloated her and did not give her the proper amount of nourishment. Her nerves became so "unstrung" she could do only the lightest kind of housework.

From the very first day she began taking a spoonful of Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup in a wineglass of water after meals, her appetite increased, digestion improved and she appeared to be getting more nourishment from her meals. Her complexion showed a healthy tinge and her color and she looked much better, in every way.

Oliver Challenges Colonist to Prove Redistribution Story.

Dares Editor to show that first word of Bill has been written.

MacLean bares P.G.E. facts; shows construction costs.

Ask action on Cariboo Road Restoration.

Government Insurance facts revealed by Hart.

Premier Oliver yesterday publicly challenged the editor of The Daily Colonist to prove the truth of his statement yesterday that the Government has drafted a Redistribution Bill and made known its terms to a Vancouver newspaper. The Premier dared the editor to produce any reliable evidence to support this statement.

"The editor of The Colonist has made a definite, positive statement that a Redistribution Bill was not only drafted, but that its terms had been given to one of the Vancouver dailies," says a written statement given out by the Premier.

"The Premier said that the Colonist statement was 'absolutely false without any foundation whatever in fact.' He said that the Bill had not been prepared and that no such draft of a Bill had been made. Nor had the first word of a Bill yet been committed to paper, he affirmed.

The question was now one of veracity as between himself and the editor of The Colonist, the Premier declared. He said he dared the editor to produce any reliable evidence in support of his statements.

P.G.E. Costs Shown

Details of the money spent on the construction of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway since the company was taken over by the Government, are made public by Hon. J. D. MacLean, Minister of Railways, in answer to questions from W. K. Edling, Conservative Member for Rossland.

"The liabilities of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway Company," says Dr. MacLean, "have increased $20,914,125.44 from the date the company was taken over by the Government to June 30, 1923; under Loan Act, 1916, P.G.E. Note Guarantees Act, Construction Act, 1920 and 1921.

Vote 253, P.G.E.R. Co. deficit on Operation and Maintenance Account, 1921; Vote 253A, P.G.E.R. Co. repair damage caused by 1921; Vote 254, P.G.E.R. Co. deficit on Operation and Maintenance Account for purchase of equipment."

Of the sums expended, $4,814,570.58 was for interest. Dr. MacLean stated that the cost of the work done by the Northern Construction Company, including material and supplies, has been $1,200,000. Commissions earned under the terms of the contracts with the company amounted to $398,627.33. Dr. MacLean adds that $1,745,563.33 paid to the Northern Construction Company. "Rebuilding and repairs to the Cariboo road," he says, "amounted to $1,200,000."

November 12 being a public holiday, will be observed at the Post Office as follows:

There will be no letter carrier deliveries during the day. Money order tickets will be closed all day. Registration, and general delivery tickets will be open throughout the day. Postage stamps will be sold during these hours. The Post Office lobby will be open to the public as on ordinary week days. All mails due to be dispatched will be made up as usual.

On account of there being no delivery on Monday, the delivery of mail will be made on Saturday afternoon, November 10.

Cariboo Road
Explaining conditions in regard to the restoration of the old Cariboo Road from Yale to Ashcroft, Premier Oliver states that he had taken the matter up with Hon. J. H. King, P.C., Minister of Public Works at Ottawa last Summer, and he expects a definite statement one way or the other on the Federal Government's road policy.

The matter came up through a request made for a return of correspondence in this connection. The Premier explained that engineers had been sent to the Cariboo road to estimate the cost of restoring it to its former condition before the railroad had been built, the Premier said. He had suggested that the Government should pay for the work, but that the Cariboo Road Company had refused to do so.

Dr. MacLean's figures show, however, that the Cariboo Road Company has received from the Government $1,200,000 for the work.

Government Insurance
In answer to questions asked by R. H. Pooley, Conservative member for Esquimalt, Hon. John Hart, Minister of Finance, states that no insurance has been taken out by the Government on buildings with the firm of Gillespie, Hart & Todd since 1916. Registered mail insurance, the premiums on which amount to $1,200,000, is taken out by the Government on the mail.

Mr. Hart also informs the Esquimalt member that the Ryan-McIntosh Timber Company has practically completed its timber-cruising equalization contract. Since March 31 last the work has cost $14,590.

Fruit Importation
Mr. E. D. Barrow, Minister of Agriculture, informs Colonel By, Esq., that the Government has no customs returns available showing the amount of fruit imported into British Columbia, but reports of the Provincial Fruit Commission show that 233 cases of American fruit had been imported this year up to the end of October. This fruit came from Washington, Oregon and California.

The total cost of the Nelson-Ymir Highway is given as $269,953 by Hon. W. H. Sutherland, Minister of Public Works.

Municipal Committee Organized
At the organization of the municipal committee yesterday it was announced that this important committee will meet during the session, regularly at 10 o'clock every Wednesday morning. No business was taken up at the initial meeting, except the appointment of A. D. Fater as chairman and H. G. Perry as secretary.

Tells of Tranquille's Work
Hon. J. D. MacLean, Provincial Secretary, presented to the House Monday the second annual report of the Tranquille Sanatorium. The institution has accommodation for 243 patients, although 237 was the highest number in any one day. A total of 312 received treatment during the year, the report states.

A marked increase was noted in the number of cases of tuberculosis seeking admission which emphasizes the need of the institution. The report also states that the appointment of Dr. Lamb, the Specialist M. T. B. work, who will urge the early treatment of this disease, the report says. The institution should not be present. "More beds at Tranquille for Early Cases," but "More Early Cases for the beds at Tranquille," Dr. MacLean urged.

The net per capita cost of the Province was increased as there

GOVERNMENT READY TO GIVE FACTS ON P.G.E. FINANCES

Showing its determination to give the public the facts about the operation of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway, the Provincial Government is prepared to approve W. K. Esling's motion allowing any member of the Legislature to examine the monthly accounts of the railway with the assistance of a private auditor.

When the motion comes before the House to-day the Government will signify it has no objection to it. This was made known last afternoon.

DRUG INQUIRY MAY BE ADJOURNED

Proceedings May Await Hearing of Appeal by Way of Stated Case

The proceedings of the Royal Commission on the drug charges, summoned under J. P. Smith, K.C., commissioner, set for adjournment on Monday, are not likely to proceed at that date, it was stated in the morning circles to-day. The hearing will reopen in Victoria at some date not yet fixed, it is said.

After a formal opening in this city last week the Commission rose with Monday set as a tentative date. C. L. Harrison appears for the Crown; J. B. Pattullo, K.C., and A. Russell, Vancouver, for the defence.

The purpose of the Commission is to inquire into allegations of bribery and corruption in the Royal Canadian Mounted Police stationed at Vancouver.

It was indicated that the proceedings may be further adjourned until after the hearing of the stated case, in which three of those charges, namely, Eccles, Smith and Fern, are being tried in the city police court on a charge of illegal drug possession.

Occupational treatment work among women patients was extended during the year, Dr. MacLean's report shows. Many repairs to the hospital buildings were completed. The Colony Farm at Essondale, Dr. MacLean says, was operated at a slight profit.

Ask Sumas Facts
Opposition members asked Hon. E. D. Barrow yesterday to file complete figures on the cost of Sumas reclamation scheme. The Conservatives demanded that the figures be brought into the House as a return and not printed. When Premier Oliver suggested that the figures should properly be brought in as a return, Opposition members charged that he was attempting to prevent full publicity of the facts. The Premier and Mr. Barrow declared that they had no such intention. The matter was left over until to-day.

PREFERENCE PLAN INCLUDES MINES

There is a suggestion that the British Government may make a last-hour addition of wines to the preferential tariff offer. Australia and South Africa have been putting their wines on the English market.

FOR BRITISH DECISION

Addressing the conference yesterday on the wider preference plan, Hon. G. P. Graham, of Canada, said the elimination of wheat from the preferential scheme as indicated in a Premier Baldwin's speech, would restrict the value of the preference to Canadian producers, but Canada freely recognized it was for Great Britain to decide what was best for her own people.

Referring to flour, he said the effect of a duty would depend very largely on the extent to which the Canadian miller would be put in a less advantageous position than the British miller. A duty that was protectionist rather than preferential would not be an advantage to the Canadian miller as the existing situation. This would be the case also with other commodities.

Hon. T. D. Pattullo's expenses were $1,455. Hon. John Hart, Minister of Finance, stated that an expense account covering his recent trip to the Old Country will be shown in the near future. The Minister says his trip to London was in connection with the proposed business, the expenses of which would be charged to the Government, but his trip to Ireland was personal, and in this connection no expense account will be charged.

Mr. Hart's travelling expenses for 1923 up to November 1, apart from his trip to London, are given as $125.

BOOTLEG FRIENDSHIPS NOT EASY TO FORM

Special Constable Tells Court He Had to Supply Drinks

That acquaintanceships in bootleg burrows were difficult to form without an initial outlay of money for "drinks around" and "pool" was the assertion of William T. Harrison, a special constable appearing in the liquor raid case in the City Police Court to-day. The hearing was that of John Ferguson and William Brennan, jointly charged with illegal sale of beer. R. C. Lowe appeared for the defence and C. J. Harrison for the Crown.

Further Cases Indicated
In cross-examining the witness Harrison, Mr. Lowe uncovered a number of his activities while employed as a special constable. Reading from the book, Mr. Lowe found numerous items which witness declared were memoranda of money paid out for beer. Mr. Lowe was searching into the identity of the premises at which numerous beers had been bought when the court stopped the investigation. Information relative to charges not yet laid was contained in the book, said the city prosecutor. Whereupon counsel for the defence abandoned his search.

The witness Harrison stated that he purchased beer from the accused at the Gordon Hotel, and that the accused Brennan had some supplies. Witness admitted that he had bought soft drinks, played pool and bought beer with Government money, but stated that this expenditure was necessary to get on the inside of the suspected dealers in illegal sales. Soft drinks were a means to an end, he intimated.

Special Constable E. A. Kilwinn took the stand. This officer stated he purchased a round of beers for himself, Harrison and another officer, based on Grant at the Gordon Hotel in October. He had paid $1.00 for the beer.

Later Harrison had called for another round of beer, and the same officer round set of bottles had been carried away and turned over to the Chief of Police. Witness said Brennan had supplied the beer and had taken the money.

The hearing, one of ten liquor raids made by city police a few weeks ago, proceeds.

Commissioner W. E. Steneland was a spectator at the hearing.

B.C. GOVERNMENT MOVES TO SETTLE LONGSHORE STRIKE

McNiven to Seek Mediation Between Longshoremen and Shipping Firms

The British Columbia Department of Labor moved to-day to end the longshoremen's strike in Vancouver.

J. D. McNiven, Deputy Minister of Labor, will leave for Vancouver immediately to attempt to bring about a settlement of the dispute between the Longshoremen's Union and the Shipping Federation, it was announced at the Parliament Buildings this morning.

Action by the Department of Labor to end the strike followed representation by organized labor in Vancouver. The Vancouver Trades and Labor Council yesterday officially urged the department to attempt to bring about an end of the strike.

Mr. McNiven explained to-day that an official representing the Federal Department of Labor had been in Vancouver for some days attempting to bring about a settlement of the strike. On his arrival in Vancouver Mr. McNiven will co-operate with this official in an effort to bring the longshoremen and the shipping companies together.

Sir Alfred Mond, one of Lloyd George's principal lieutenants, however, already has made his own attitude toward protection clear. He has declared that he is in favor of the present time, and his declaration on the Premier's tariff proposals at Northampton last night, when he said, "I will be Neville Chamberlain (Chancellor of the Exchequer) a modest amount that if he introduces the suggested tariff he will see everything he puts a duty on rise in price."

The same was said by Ramsay MacDonald, the Labor Opposition leader, in a speech at Merioneth, Wales, when he described the cry of protection as only a red herring.

The proposal which has been already informally discussed is to consider the possibilities of connecting Sidney with Stevenson, which is likely by a railway line, and then through the Lulu Island line, and to New Westminster by direct road, and also by railway via Eburne, as well as water communication up the Fraser River.

Stevenson as Base
Stevenson, it is believed, could be used as a base to serve the whole Fraser Delta, from which communication could be made readily by road to the Pacific Highway, and thence to all points on that highway north of Bellingham.

The present summer service to the Gulf Islands could be improved by the proposed ferry make a limited number of calls on the islands en route.

This summer has demonstrated that the ferry service must be efficient to supplement highway needs, and that an additional ferry should be a desirable aid to the recognition of the Island Highway as part of the trans-continental highway system of Canada.

Alderman Todd has already discussed some aspects of the above suggestion with the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau. The meeting will be held at 3 o'clock Tuesday at the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

"And whereas at the time of the enactment of the British North America Act and also at the time of the approval of the Terms of Union, there was no railway connection between the eastern provinces of Canada and the Province of British Columbia; and because of the above fact it is abundantly clear that it was not the intent of the Imperial Parliament that the operation of Section 121 of the British North America Act should be limited to produce or manufacture transported from one province through all Canadian territory."

"And whereas the Customs' regulation herebefore referred to appears to be solely in the interest of transportation companies."

"Therefore be it resolved that in the opinion of this House it is in the interest of all the provinces of Canada that a Canadian Customs House officer should be appointed at the port of New York, in order to facilitate the transportation of Canadian produce and manufactures via the Panama Canal."

"And be it further resolved that in the opinion of this House the imposition of Canadian Customs duties upon the produce or manufactures of any province of Canada and destined to any other province of Canada, by whatever route transported or where transported, is contrary to the provisions of the British North America Act, and that such imposition should be at once ceased."

"And be it further resolved that this House urge upon the Provincial Government to take such steps as it properly may to resist the imposition of Customs duties upon Canadian products and manufactures destined to British Columbia or produced or manufactured in British Columbia and destined to any other province of Canada."

"And be it further resolved that a humble address be presented to His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor praying that he will cause a copy of the recitals and resolutions hereinbefore set out to be transmitted to the Honorable the Secretary of State, or other proper officer in charge of presentation to His Excellency the Governor-General-in-Council."

REVENUE INCREASE
Ottawa, Nov. 8 (Canadian Press)—The revenue of the Dominion for the year ended with October showed an increase of over $10,000,000 as compared with the corresponding months of the previous year. The expenditures on consolidated fund showed a reduction of $2,000,000. The net debt of the Dominion at the end of October was $11,000,000 less than at the end of the previous month, but $17,000,000 greater than at the end of October, 1922.

WANT PROVINCE TO AID PENSION FIGHT
Money from the Provincial Government to help out-of-town veterans present their cases to the Appeals Board, the Canadian Legion, Amalgamated Veterans, it was decided at their meeting last night under the chairmanship of Gus Lyot, that the sum of $10,000 was pointed out, and the Government of British Columbia will also be asked to make a grant of $10,000 in a lump sum for individual cases. The money is needed, it was pointed out, for out-of-town veterans who wished to have their cases handled by the soldier advocate at the Island, Geo. H. Sedger. Some of the men, it was claimed, have not the funds to come to Victoria to put the case before the advocate or to attend the appeals board hearing. Some of the veterans could prepare their cases and present them to the advocate for action, but others would have to employ help in putting an adequate case in writing. It was left to the executive to decide whether to present the application in writing or to attempt the appeals board hearing.

Pension cases which had been fought to a successful issue by the organization were presented, and one was quoted to show the it had been established that pensions had been made retroactive from the time of a man's discharge and not from the time of his death. The making of a pension was acknowledged. This, it was pointed out, might mean that large sums were due some of the successful applicants.

Satisfaction was expressed with the appointments of ex-service men to the seasonal staff of the Legislative Buildings, as requested by the legion.

A wire was ordered to be sent to the Deputy Minister of Marine complaining that the order of seniority was evidently being deviated from and that there had not been consideration given to the rule of preference to ex-service men in the making of appointments. In a recent appointment to the post of first officer on the D.G.S. Newington.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

....a double winner at the Olympic Games at Athens, and twice all-around champion of America. Then came a change. I was admitted to the Bar, and wholly abandoned my outdoor life. The effect on my health was disastrous. Constipation and blood impurities became first an annoyance, then a menace, and finally a chronic disability. My nerves were 'on edge'; I became moody, irritable, and subject to intense depression.

One day I heard two chance acquaintances praising the merits of Fleischmann's Yeast. They spoke with enthusiasm, but it was their appearance, even more than their words, which decided me....

The age of miracles is still here. Inside of a fortnight I noticed a distinct improvement in my health; in a month I was literally a new man. Within a year my nerves had steadied and my appetite came back. I am today in the pink of condition and a convert for life to Fleischmann's Yeast.

ELLERY H. CLARK
1112 Tremont Building, Boston, Mass.

"the age of miracles is still here—in one month
I was literally a new man"

There is nothing unusual about the enthusiasm of the New England lawyer whose letter is printed above.

Constipation, skin troubles, digestive disorders—all of them are generally due simply to wrong habits of living and eating. All of them have been becoming more common year by year. Now at last we are learning how to fight them.

The whole secret of the overwhelming popularity of Fleischmann's Yeast is that it is a food, not a medicine, and that it helps to remove the cause permanently, not merely to check the symptoms temporarily. Its millions of tiny living cells aid digestion and give the intestinal muscles regular, healthy exercise. Its rich vitamin and protein content increases the white corpuscles in the blood and helps to tone up the whole system.

Remember that Fleischmann's Yeast for Health comes only in the tinfoil wrapper, and cannot be purchased in tablet form. All grocers have it.

Eat two or three cakes a day before or between meals, plain, in water or fruit juices, or spread on crackers or on bread, whichever you prefer. Send for free booklet, "The New Found Value of Fleischmann's Yeast in Building Health." The Fleischmann Company, Dept. 215 D, 1166 Burrard Street, Vancouver, B.C.

WITHDRAWAL OF CHARGE GRANTED

But J. P. Smith, R.C.M.P. Investigator, Demands Satisfaction

Vancouver, Nov. 8.—In police court here yesterday Magistrate Findlay sanctioned the withdrawal of the charge against J. P. Smith, special agent of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, of violation of the drug act.

Oscar Orr, assistant prosecutor, explained that he was in receipt of instructions from the Attorney-General's Department at Victoria and desired to withdraw the charge. To this Frank Lyons, counsel for Smith, objected on the ground that he wanted a dismissal of the charge and his client's character cleared. "For weeks my client has been living under the stigma of this charge," said he. "He has been a member and trusted official of the R.C.M.P. for some years and carried the confidence of his superior officers, yet he has been picked out and arrested on a charge like this, a charge whereof the prosecution is not able to give any particulars." Mr. Lyons declared and intimated that his client would at once institute such proceedings as might be necessary to secure a complete clearance and would take action against those who were responsible for his arrest and temporary imprisonment. It is understood immediate civil proceedings will be taken in which those alleged to have been responsible for the laying of the charge will be cited as defendants.

MAN WITH SEVEN WIVES IS SENT TO JAIL FOR THEFT

Spokane, Nov. 8.—Harry L. Ro-shon, who confessed that he had married seven women in various Pacific coast cities without the formality of divorcing any of them, has been taken to the state penitentiary at Walla Walla, where he will serve a three-year sentence for grand larceny. He pleaded guilty to court here to embezzlement of $7,000 from Mrs. Alma Schneider, of Spokane, one of the women with whom he went through the marriage ceremony.

ONTARIO LIQUOR VOTE

Windsor, Ont., Nov. 8.—A referendum on the question of Government control of liquor will be taken in June of next year, according to members of the local Conservative committee in Ontario. Frank W. Wilson, M.P.P. for Windsor, favors an early vote. The success of the Moderation League in Alberta may hasten Government action, the local Conservatives asserted.

TELEGRAPHERS MAY TAKE VOTE

C.P.R. Employees Want Increase; Rejected Board's Award

Engineers and Conductors to Negotiate Soon

Montreal, Nov. 8.—A referendum vote of Canadian Pacific telegraphers may be the next step in the telegraphers' effort to obtain an aggregate increase in wages, working out at approximately six cents an hour more for all grades. It is understood in union circles here.

The telegraphers recently notified the Department of Labor of their non-acceptance of the findings of the board of conciliation which sat recently in connection with the dispute.

Negotiations
Schedule negotiations between individual Canadian railways and the "Big Four" Brotherhoods comprising the running trades—the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and the Order of Railway Conductors—are expected to open in the near future.

The men's proposals are for a return to the 1920 rates, wiping out the 12½ per cent. cut put into force in July, 1921.

It is stated that the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers will join forces to negotiate with the individual railways, while the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and the Order of Railway Conductors may combine in negotiation for their respective schedules.

ELECTIONS IN U.S. WERE DIVIDED

Democrats Won Gubernatorial Contests in Three States

Three Republicans and Four Democrats Returned to U.S. House

New York, Nov. 8.—Democrats were elected in all three states where there were gubernatorial elections this week—Kentucky, Maryland and Mississippi.

Vermont, where the only United States senatorial contest was held, returned a Republican—Forster H. Dale, who defeated Park H. Pollard, a cousin of President Coolidge.

In the seven contests for the House, the Democrats won four and the Republicans three, one of the Republican victories being an upset in which former Representative Fairchild defeated his Democratic opponent for the place made vacant by the death of J. Vincent Ganley in the 24th New York District. Party assignment was unchanged in the other Congressional elections.

Kentucky.
The victory of the Democrats in Kentucky, where Representative William J. Fields defeated Charles I. Dawson, represented a swing of the pendulum which in the last election swept Governor Edwin P. Morrow, Republican, into office. Mr. Fields' majority was decisive and he will have a Democratic Legislature to support him.

Governor Ritchie, re-elected in Maryland over Alexander Armstrong, Republican, has an increased majority over his first election.

H. D. Whitfield, Democrat, had no opposition in Mississippi.

New York

In New York State the Republicans retained control of the General Assembly, but the Democratic judicial ticket in Manhattan and the Bronx was swept into office.

Ten justices of the Supreme Court in the two boroughs were elected by the Democrats, defeating the Republican ticket in the Republican and Republican-Independent ticket, supported by William Randolph Hearst, by an average plurality of more than 130,000.

The Democratic victory in the other three boroughs was almost as great. In Brooklyn, the Democratic plurality for the county ticket ranged from 50,000 to 90,000; in Queens from 12,000 to 20,000; and in Richmond from 10,000 to 15,000.

Five Republican aldermen were defeated, three in Manhattan and two in Brooklyn.

Local issues were voted on in various sections of the country. Virginia turned down a $500,000 bond issue for good roads. Ohio elected mayors supported by the Ku Klux Klan in Youngstown, Portsmouth, Akron and several smaller cities. Philadelphia returned W. Fresland Kendrick, a Republican, as mayor by an overwhelming majority.

Woman Judge

In Illinois Miss Mary M. Bartelme, the first woman to be elevated to a circuit court judgeship, was elected in Cook County. She is a Republican and led the ticket.

The New Jersey Legislature remained in the Republican column notwithstanding the vigorous campaign waged by Governor Sulzer, Democrat, for a Democratic lawmaking body.

The results of the senatorial and congressional elections will leave the two Houses of Congress with this lineup:

House of Representatives—Republicans, 225; Democrats, 204; Socialists, 1; Independent, 1; Farmer-Labor, 1; vacancies, 3. Republican majority, 18.

The Republican majority in the Senate will remain at six.

PRISONERS HAD CARRIER PIGEON

Disclosure About the Recent Escape of Group From Kingston Institution

Kingston, Ont., Nov. 8.—A carrier pigeon was kept by prisoners in Portsmouth Penitentiary for three months, and flew back and forth to the outside world for them, according to evidence given by Arthur Savage, suspended guard of the prison, when he appeared in police court here yesterday.

Twigg stated that the pigeon was kept by the prisoners in a little nest made for it in the coal box in the prison yard. It went away shortly after the recent escape of "Red" Ryan and his gang, and has never been seen since.

The suspended guard denied the allegations that he had been engaged in carrying letters or of receiving narcotics. He accused the prison authorities of having attempted to "get him" because he had communicated with Brig-General Hughes Superintendent of Penitentiaries.

OF INTEREST TO US

Although Premier King had not made, and did not intend to make, any request for a preference on any Canadian product that may find a market in Great Britain, the people of this country will naturally accept with many thanks the concession that has just been announced in respect of four important food commodities that are produced in large quantities within the Empire, and in respect of two of which British Columbia has a special interest.

The free admission of canned salmon and fresh apples should mean a very great deal to this part of Canada. Little difficulty should be experienced in a favorable competition with the foreign producer with the larger volume of exports that should follow the operation of the preference on these two commodities. Canada can most certainly produce apples that should now increase in favor on the other side of the water and Canadian salmon should not find it difficult to supplant the various inferior grades that equal facility of admission has assisted to more popularity than has been profitable for the British Columbia product. This is not to say that canned salmon from this part of the Dominion has been anything approaching insignificant in volume; at the same time Siberia has disposed of large quantities of preserved fish of inferior grades and the output from this country has dropped accordingly.

While the canning interests of the Province will naturally feel a sense of jubilation at the announcement from London we can readily understand the satisfaction that will be experienced throughout the whole of the Okanagan Valley and in other fruit-producing centres. In that principal apple belt the question of what to do with the annual surplus has been one of serious concern for some years past and many growers were beginning to wonder whether their labors were worth while. But with a tax upon the foreign product the volume of business with the Old Country should immediately increase to proportions that will give promise of fair profit to the producer already in business and stimulate still further development.

It will be understood, of course, that the successful operation of the preference will depend entirely upon the manner in which the people of Britain take to the inevitable increase in the price of these commodities. For it simply means that the adjustment in the selling figures of the foreign article will immediately produce a full grown working example of how Imperial and any other sort of preference works. That is the business of the Old Country people. Canada has not asked for the concession. Her policy is one of hands off domestic problems. She will take what is offered and be thankful for it; but she has no right to be angry if it does not turn out as well as the advocates of protection will prophesy.

A GOOD SCHEME

It is hoped that the Government will facilitate the connection of Saanich with Mill Bay by ferry by establishing the terminals sought by the promoters, concerning which a deputation from the Chamber of Commerce and Publicity Bureau interviewed the Minister of Public Works yesterday. The cost of the ferry slips on both sides would be met many times in the long run by the diversion of traffic from the Malahat, especially during the winter months, and it would be good business from the Government's point of view to assist the development of the alternative route between Victoria and up-Island points. Obviously it would be a great convenience for motor-traffic at all seasons, while a direct connection of this kind would be an important factor in promoting the progress of all the districts tributary to it.

GETTING DOWN TO CASES

Among the overseas settlement proposals which the Economic Conference has already considered and approved are important decisions that Premier King will submit to Parliament at its next session. For instance the Dominion Government proposes to assist very materially in the payment of passage money and to impart in numerous ways a good deal more of the human touch to its immigration policies generally. It suggests the extension of the machinery of the Soldiers' Settlement Act in order to include all ex-service men of the Empire. It will discuss the inauguration of group settlement with provincial governments and give careful consideration to the possibilities of introducing experimental maintenance allowances for a limited number of immigrant families. In addition to these proposals it is suggested that the immigration employment service which ceased to function at the outbreak of the war shall be restored to the rural districts. Free courses in agriculture for Old Country public school boys, and an offer of free instructors familiar with Canadian conditions for would-be land settlers, are also mentioned.

These are essentially practical proposals and should furnish Parliament with material for constructive and progressive discussion of one of the most important issues of public concern in this country at the present time. The matter of passage money and limited maintenance allowances in certain circumstances will no doubt present numerous difficulties. Considerable responsibility will devolve upon such officials as may be charged with the duty of making recommendations for special consideration. Nevertheless it goes without saying that many families and men of certain type—otherwise unable to consider migration through lack of funds—would make excellent Canadian citizens and first-class producers if only they could be taken straight to the land that awaits them. Not all of such undertakings would prove profitable investments; but it can be taken for granted that unless some such practical movement, as a part of the general migration which will sure to get under way of its own volition before very long, shall be inaugurated, immigration effort will not produce the flow that it otherwise might. The men and families worthy of assistance immediately become immigration agents as soon as they make a success of things—a not inconsiderable factor at this stage of the game.

SHOCKING!

Mr. Winston Churchill has had Lord Alfred Douglas arrested on a charge of criminal libel for stating in a book that Mr. Churchill had aided speculators to make £48,000,000 by suppressing the news of the Battle of Jutland. The incident reminds us that since the war British printing machinery has turned out tons of reading matter in newspapers, magazines, pamphlets and books written by statesmen, generals, professional publicists and journalistic hacks, charging somebody with treason, incompetence, bungling, corruption and what not in connection with the conflict. Only a few weeks ago a distinguished British admiral published a book in which he charged that certain traders among his fellow-countrymen helped to prolong the war by sending large quantities of goods to Germany by way of Scandinavia and thereby evading the British blockade. We wonder what Canon Hinchliffe would say if even an infinitesimal fraction of these outpourings were produced in Canada, or for that matter if our literature contained any of the glowing eulogies of Germany and the excuses of her conduct which not a few publicists in the Old Country are freely presenting to their readers. Is it not shocking, Mr. Hinchliffe?

Note and Comment

One of the shortest cuts to defeat in the political life of the United States is that furnished by the warm support of newspapers operated by William Randolph Hearst.

At the municipal elections in Glasgow all the twelve candidates of the workers' republican party were overwhelmingly defeated. Which goes to show that the level-headed Scotchman believes in the sure thing and not in the imported experiment.

Soviet Russia's War Minister has the sword in his mouth again. At yesterday's military review in Moscow he said that "the year will not be one of rest for us, but a year of great and sanguine struggles; unprecedented heroism and many sacrifices on the road to victory." It is to be hoped that the weather will be pleasant for these great days to come.

We are now informed that Mussolini has no prejudices whatever against the League of Nations and that he favors the principles of the League as an association of nations to effect the peaceful settlement of disputes. The Italian Premier's attitude to the Secretary-General of the organization in question has more a smack of condescension. Italy was a charter member and her Government was the first to give the League a dig in the ribs.

Our Contemporaries

NOT SO SURE

Hamilton Herald:—We are not so sure as Lloyd George seems to be that the British Empire would be willing to go to war again to establish peace in Europe on a sound basis. Once before we were told that this country was engaged in "a war to end war," and were fooled.

IF GERMANY IS TO PAY

Manchester Guardian:—If Germany is to pay as much as she is capable of paying she must, for both political and economic reasons, have the effective control of all German industries, and in particular of the industries of the occupied zones. She must not be hamstrung in the Ruhr, on the pretext of reparations or of French security.

GETTING BRITISH SETTLERS

Ottawa Journal:—Apparently Mr. Robb is about to conduct a vigorous campaign in the British Isles for new settlers. Possibly many thousands will come out next year in an effort to find homes in Canada. Of the 12,000 or so British harvesters the great majority can be kept in the country, and every assistance should be given the department in its effort along this line.

VICTORIA A FREE PORT ADVOCATED

To the Editor:—In view of the unceasing efforts of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce and the Publicity Bureau to develop the natural resources of Vancouver Island, we have obtained valuable promises of assistance from the Government in the extension of roads and railways. Surely, the day has arrived when some definite and concrete action shall be taken to place Victoria on the map for all time as a free port, inviting the shipping of all nations to call at our ports to handle our wealth—coal, wheat, lumber, ore, general merchandise—that these new roads and railways will bring down to us. What are we going to do about it, to get ready for this transportation? Here we have at Ogden Point docks about three and a half million dollars tied up, almost doing nothing! This should be the largest depot on the Pacific for Oriental produce and the centre assembling point for lumber, fish, coal, grain and ore; but to get these together it is absolutely necessary that the railway tracks should be extended from Johnson Street Bridge, along Wharf Street, behind the Post Office, Causeway, down Superior Street, direct to Ogden Point. The flat and box cars to be moved, at night, 11 p.m. to 7 a.m., when most of the traffic is eased down and quiet. Above all there should be a coal tip and grain elevators at Ogden Point. The coal tip situated close up to the present transport slip in the Mud Bay, north end, dredged out, and available for coaling at any state of tide—night or day.

Victoria only requires a strong Harbor Board, who would lease the Ogden Point docks from the Federal Government, say for a term of ninety-nine years, and demand a free port, establishing a depot, coal tip and grain elevators. This every merchant in the city would benefit. Our amusement centre scheme, which the Chamber of Commerce has now in hand, together with the new Esquimalt drydock, fast nearing completion, will place Victoria immediately, and at one step, "points ahead" of any other city on the Pacific, if immediate action is taken and seriously considered.

CORRECTIONS

To the Editor:—I wonder whether you would be good enough to correct several errors in to-day's write-up about exhibits of paintings in Fletcher's store. There are twenty-five watercolors by Saxon Winter and also a case of miniatures by Mrs. Paget—which unfortunately did not arrive until after our representative had called. Also Mr. A. E. Strutt is an English artist (not local) who has exhibited in the London Royal Academy for years. If you would also include an announcement that there is to be a musical affair on Thursday afternoon and on Saturday I should be very pleased.

DISCRIMINATION

To the Editor:—Touching the new regulations concerning the importation of plants, trees, etc., which came into effect on September 1, it seems to be not generally known that while one may not import plants by mail from England, one may do so from the United States.

This seems to me, sir, to be a direct discrimination against Great Britain in favor of the United States and will be resented most strongly by all Canadians.

If cannot be too strongly urged that the importation of plants by mail be allowed from England and other countries in Europe in order that the many collectors like myself should not be mulcted in the unnecessary expense of express charges on small packages which could be forwarded by mail for a few cents.

QUITE SOUND

To the Editor:—There is reason to believe that during the past week in consequence of certain advertisements appearing in the press, some persons have formed a misconception of the financial position of the Victoria Automobile Club, which is a branch of the Automobile Club of British Columbia.

My executive will be much obliged if you will allow me space to announce through your columns that the Victoria Automobile Club and the Automobile Club of British Columbia are not and never have been in any way connected with any other organization of similar name, and that their financial position is, as it always has been, absolutely sound. The emblem of this club at present in use is the well-known one in the form of a silver "V," which is carried on the cars of most of our 525 members.

R. R. WEBB,
Secretary, Victoria Automobile Club, Branch of the Automobile Club of British Columbia.

THE COMPTON PLAYERS

To the Editor:—One cannot help wondering how many theatre-going people of Victoria have realized that this city has been greatly privileged during the past few months by the presence in their midst of a great actor in the person of Mr. Francis Compton, one of England's most brilliant stage families. Judging by the poor support granted to Mr. Compton by the play-going public it would seem to be very few indeed, and that the majority have either not understood or, at any rate, not cared enough to avail themselves of this opportunity of seeing plays that never have been and probably will not again be produced in Victoria for many a long day, for the reason that the stellar roles in these plays could only be carried by an actor of unusual merit and also that the great actors of the London stage do not visit Victoria more than once or twice in their lifetime, and some have never been.

Those who saw Mr. Compton in "The Passing of Third Floor Back," "The Belle" and other famous plays with which one instinctively identifies the names of Irving, Forbes

Robertson, Waller and men whose names in England are household words, were not disappointed and have often allowed that it was not the son of Edward Compton is easily comparable with the brightest stars of the English stage.

It seems a reflection on Victoria that we could offer him no better place in which to work than the Playhouse. The objection has been often raised that it was not an attractive place in which to sit. Be that as it may, if the Playhouse was good enough for Francis Compton to work in then it was quite good enough for the wealthiest and most exalted citizen of Victoria to sit in.

Mr. Compton has endeavored during his stay in Victoria to present only those plays of a high literary and moral value, including the works of Sheridan, Goldsmith, Barrie and Jerrold; but it seems as though his efforts in this direction were almost totally unappreciated, whether through ignorance, lack of education or merely that curious apathy that is unfortunately so marked a characteristic of Victoria, it is difficult to say.

No doubt in some future day when the name of Francis Compton is as widely known as the names of his famous predecessors, Victorians will look back with not a little regret that they allowed such a privilege as that which has been afforded them during the past few months to pass unheeded and that they gave him so little encouragement and support that he could not "carry on." In passing, let me urge that Victorians do not miss the only opportunity they may ever have of seeing "The School for Scandal," that brightest gem among the treasures of English comedy produced by a Compton.

In conclusion one can only reiterate the regret that we are to be denied so soon the privilege of retaining among us for a little while at least a man who has proved himself not only a superb actor but a brave soldier in all that term implies—an English gentleman.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TO-DAY

Victoria Times, November 8, 1898

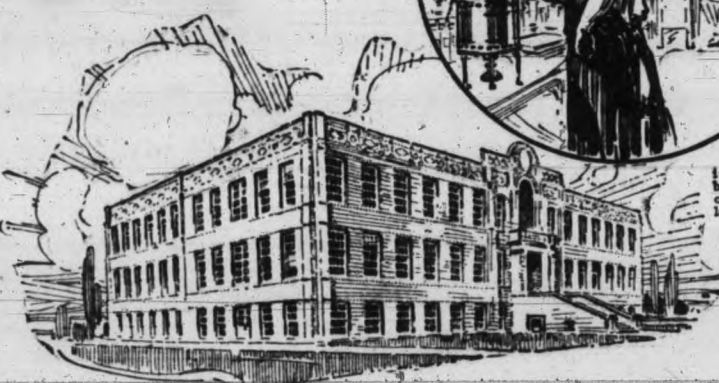

The Vancouver Island Ploughing Association will hold its annual match on Saturday in a field belonging to Mr. Joseph John, near Sidney. Miss Laurie, a lady medical practitioner who is in the city, intends to open practice in Seattle.

On Saturday afternoon the C. P. R. Telegraphs completed the very extensive improvements in its service. Four wires are now working to the mainland, three to Vancouver and one to Seattle.

Avoid Motor Oils

containing paraffin, asphalt or any other non-lubricating substance. Aristo Oil is refined by the most advanced processes, designed to remove everything in the crude which has no lubricating value.

The Research Laboratory of the Union Oil Company of California at Wilmington, devoted to research work to insure superiority in Union products—Aristo Motor Oil and other products.

Seek More

in motor oil than simply perfection
as a lubricating film

In Aristo Motor Oil there is every lubricating quality that the best oil can possess.

A staff of chemical experts produce it, backed by "Union Oil" facilities permitting of the most exhaustive research and conclusive tests.

A durable, fine film results, penetrating to and protecting the motor's every moving part.

Every drop is as near to perfection as a lubricating film as modern science can make motor oil.

But there is more to look for in your oil.

Two "Carbons"
—one is Flinty, Hard

All motor oils, as all oil makers know, deposit some carbonaceous residue.

One kind is gritty, flinty, hard—hard enough to score cylinders and scratch rings, pistons, valves and bearings. It has a tendency to cling. It acts as an abrasive, causing wear. It becomes incandescent, pre-ignition following. It coats spark plugs, short-circuiting the spark.

Lost compression results from its accumulation around valve heads, and seats.

The Other Kind

The residue from Aristo Oil is fluffy, soft. Because of its non-clinging tendency, most of it blows out with the exhaust.

It is softer than the metal it touches, so can't cause wear. It is deposited in smaller quantities than the other kind.

Cars run thousands of miles farther without pre-ignition, short-circuiting, or loss of power through impaired compression.

Hence four motor troubles are eliminated by it in addition to its service as a perfect lubricant.

There's a deal more satisfaction in such oil. For sale at all first-class garages and service stations.

IN WOMAN'S DOMAIN

LOWER MAINLAND INSTITUTES HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

Provincial Report Shows That Institutes of B.C. Raised $41,892

Vancouver, Nov. 7. — The annual district conference of the Women's Institutes for the Lower Mainland opened on Tuesday afternoon in the B.C. Manufacturers' Building. Reports of various departments and animated discussion following them constituted the business of the session. In the absence of Mrs. F. B. Madden, the chair was occupied by the president of the board of directors, Mrs. F. G. Barber.

Board of Directors
An account of the formation and work of the board of directors was given by Mrs. Barber, who stated that the board had been organized and held its first meeting on January 6 of this year. A woman's exchange was talked of at this meeting and it was decided that the matter should be discussed at the next convention. A total of $185.20 had been received by the board and the balance now is $132.20. Mrs. Barber thought that the board had not yet justified its existence, though the secretary expressed her opinion that with the co-operation of the various institutes, the board might be made a great power.

Report for Institutes
Mrs. V. S. McLachlan gave a comprehensive report for the annual endeavours and history of the institutes for the province for the year 1922. Claiming that the object of these organizations, which were growing in number, was the promotion of provincial prosperity through the institutes in co-operation with the Provincial Government departments. Mrs. McLachlan gave an outline of the reports presented during the year by the institutes. She spoke of the rural district, as had been done by the president of the conference, and presented and the work accomplished.

Salmon Arm the Star
Speaking of each department of work, she said that the public health and child welfare work should be taken up more enthusiastically, since the board of health was not doing the work. Such work as installing a public health nurse in an isolated rural district, as had been done by the Nelson institute, with absolutely no return to that institute, was a splendid example for the workers. Mrs. McLachlan also thought that in the educational and better schools department, as well as in immigration and legislation. She explained the Women's Exchange begun in the Hudson's Bay Store in Victoria, and advocated a widespread publicity campaign to make such efforts successful. She also made a strong plea for assistance for Canadian publications and increased interest in industries.

The report showed that the star institute was that of Salmon Arm, which had raised during the year the most money, with Vernon next and Point Grey third. From the ninety-five institutes questioned throughout the province, the sum of $41,891.69 had been raised.

Publicity Report
Following the publicity report presented by Mrs. McFarlane of Haney Institute, she advocated more support for Canadian magazines. As a result of the discussion Mrs. E. H. Tomer was appointed to prepare a questionnaire for the institutes concerning articles for Canadian magazines and publications.

Mrs. A. Jenkins, of Agassiz, presented the report on industries, saying that she had sent out questionnaires to the institutes concerning the best methods for marketing various products, and had received interesting answers and suggestions in return.

The address of welcome was given by Mrs. G. L. Reid, of the Central Park Institute, and the response was the singing of the institute ode. The resolution committee included Mrs. R. H. Richardson, Mrs. K. Porter, Mrs. G. Green, Mrs. Coates and Mrs. Loomis. The secretary for the season was Mrs. H. Croft.

from cities where this picture has been shown. "Skid Proof" provides Mr. Jones with the most flexible and varied role of his career. Laid at the time of the transcontinental auto race, the scenes dash boldly from thrill to thrill in a wonderful series of kaleidoscopic views.

The story involves a strong conflict of emotions, a headlong case of love at first sight, yet all is treated with that zippy, airy, delightful touch that characterizes all of Scott Dunlap's directional efforts.

Charles Jones is concerned in the tale as Jack Darwin, the youth who wins cups for his ability in driving racing cars. The transcontinental auto race has among its entrants one Hardy Zecker, driver of the Dorado.
He is a mercenary fellow, taking no pride in his victories. Dutton Har-more, owner of the Dorado, is observing the progress of the race from an aeroplane. He sees his driver, Zecker, pull up his car and stop just after he had gained a great lead and was certain of victory. Hardmore descends, furious with the driver, certain now that he had been bribed to give up the race.

Hardmore makes Zecker drive to a garage, where he meets Jack Darwin, played by Jones. Darwin attempts to finish the race in the Dorado. He falls as a result of the obstacles set in his path by Rufus Tyler, who bribed Zecker. But he meets Nadine.
His subsequent trials at the hands of Tyler form a continuous chain of rapid-fire events that bolt from the screen with the force of a maddened bull. His great daring doesn't even shrink from crossing a burning tree-trunk bridge.

Aggie Lynch Is Amusing Character in Film at Royal

Some of the most amusing scenes in "Within the Law," the absorbing Norma Talmadge picture playing at the Royal Theatre this week, are enacted by Eileen Percy, as Aggie Lynch, feminine leader of a blackmail band, and Thomas Ricketts as General Hastings, a gay old dog.

Aggie finds particularly rich material for a breach of promise suit in old General Hastings, who considered himself a regular devil with the ladies and who is completely captivated by Aggie's favorite expression, "Oh! I am so frightened," and her baby-vamp attitude.

The General, however, has a rather expensive awakening, and as usual with Aggie and her crowd, the matter is entirely "within the law."
Norma Talmadge plays the leading role of Mary Turner, who encounters an extraordinary romance when she is induced to become a member of Aggie's band. "Within the Law" is a First National picture directed by Frank Lloyd, and one of the year's box office sensations to judge by the crowds at the Royal Theatre.

A special added attraction, the great international horse race, Papyrus vs. Zev, will also be shown.

at Playhouse for Remainder of Week

The Compton Comedy Company will present "The School for Scandal" to-night and for the remainder of the week. All lovers of the best in English comedy drama should not miss this presentation, which is undoubtedly the most ambitious production that Mr. Compton has yet undertaken. No better choice could have been made for the farewell week than this great English classic.
It is beautifully mounted, the costumes and scenery being most lavish and the entire cast has been very skillfully chosen by Mr. Compton.

Between acts last night, Dr. Clem Davies, of the Methodist Church, made a short address to the audience and paid a high tribute to Mr. Compton and his company of players, who, after next week's performances, are leaving Victoria. Mr.
Davies referred to the important place the company had filled in the life of Victoria during their stay here, and expressed his deep regret at their intended departure. He urged all patrons to show tangible evidence of their appreciation by attending next week's offerings, which will be in the nature of a "benefit" week for the players. On Monday and Wednesday the popular success,
"Cappy Ricks," will be given and on Thursday, Friday and Saturday
"Grumpy" will be presented.

Pure Farce Plus
Lloyd Personality
Is Drawing Force

The possibilities for farce comedy in a South American revolution have been seized by Harold Lloyd and exploited in "Why Worry," his new Pathé comedy showing at the Dominion Theatre. It is pure farce plus the Lloyd personality and production.
"Why Worry?" was written by Sam
Taylor assisted by Ted Wilde and Tim Whelan. Fred Newmeyer and Sam Taylor directed. The picture introduces Jobyna Ralston as Lloyd's leading woman. A figure in the case that is new to the screen is John Aasen, declared to be the biggest man in the world. He is eight feet nine and a quarter inches tall and weighs 460 pounds—with his shoes.
These are said to give John Aasen an avoids "on the lot" rounding out the figure to 500. It can easily be imagined this human mountain makes a highly diverting foil for the slender and agile Lloyd throughout the action of "Why Worry."

The Ladies' Aid of the First Congregational Church will hold their annual sale of work in the school room on Tuesday afternoon, November 10, to commence at 3 o'clock. All kinds of useful and pretty gifts will be displayed.

DAME CLARA BUTT IN SUPERB VOICE

Fine Programme. Enchanted Big Audience; Changed For
To-night

Dame Clara Butt occupies in the realm of music a unique position.
During the last quarter of a century her name and fame have been proclaimed in every quarter of the globe. Particularly is she endeared to the people of the British Isles, and she will leave a name which future generations will surely repeat. Not only has she the special gift of a beautiful gorgeous voice, but, combined with her graciousness and queenly manner, give her the right to the highest consideration on the concert platform. It is no wonder then when it is announced that this favorite singer is to appear in their midst—large numbers of people turn out to hear and greet her. So it proved last evening at the first of two concerts to be given in the Capital City at the Capitol Theatre.
Her appearance met with a most flattering and spontaneous outburst of enthusiasm, and in each and every number were there manifestations of delighted appreciation and soul-satisfying pleasure from her numerous listeners. Her art is as fresh as ever, her diction as perfect, her culture and subtlety as illuminating, and her many characteristics as an art song singer as supreme as from the days of her earliest triumphs. She chose last evening from the books of words provided many numbers that made a special appeal to all present, among these being "Nebbia" (O. Respighi), Rachmaninoff's "In the Silence of Night," the famous aria from "Samson et Delila" (Samson), "Mon Coeur s'ouvre a ta Voix," and to the insistent and prolonged applause gave the glorious "Creation Hymn," by the immortal Beethoven, and later singing three additional numbers,
Cowen's delightful setting to Ella
Wheeler Wilcox's "The Beautiful Land of Nod," "I Know My Love," old Irish, arranged by Herbert Hughes, and W. H. Squire's fine song,
"My Prayer," and for the last many requests Liddle's "Abide With Me." Madam Butt also joined in the old favorite and amusing duet, "Keys of Heaven," by special request at the conclusion of the programme with Kennery Rumford.

So can Kennery Rumford, her husband, share to a large extent in what has already been said of Dame Clara Butt. Sincere and faithful to his art, ever willing to give his services, and possessed of a fine voice and perfection of method and style, this popular baritone's name, too, is a household word to those of our own land. He selected the great aria, "Largo al Factotum," from the "Barber of Seville" (Rossini), "Vagabond" (John Ireland), "A Plover" (H. H. H.), (Donald Ford), the old English country song, "The Maid of the Sweet Brown Knowe" (a little hill), by Herbert Hughes, and for the last core gave a spirited rendering of "The Yeomen of England" (Edward German).

W. H. Squire, the cellist of the concert party, played splendidly and with consummate skill. He plays his instrument as if it were the greatest delight in the world, and there can be no doubt of the great impression he made with his hearers last evening.
His technique, interpretations, art of showing and beautiful tone were all masterly achievement, and it can be said without equivocation that no such player of the cello has been heard here for many a long day. His numbers were "Old Italian Love Song" by Samartini arranged by himself, "Humoresque" (drinking song) by Dukler, Schumann's "Traumerel," the sparkling "Papillon" (Bourtoy), by the great French David Popper, and in response to the loud and clamorous requests for an additional number gave J. H. Foulds
"Keltic Lament." He, with the pianist, Ivor Newton, in the opening of the concert gave a finished performance of the "Allegro Agitato," from Grieg's Sonata in A minor.

Ivor Newton, too, made a marked impression as a soloist of high re-grees. Not only did he with dexterity, skill and adequateness fill the "role"
as accompanist to the soloists splendently, but in his solo "Scherozo," op.
13 (Chopin), evinced such mastery of nuances and technical abilities that merited him the enthusiasm and continued appeals for an additional number. Following the last of this number, so well-known to pianists, Mr. Newton gave in reply Cyril Scott's "Danse Negre," with delightful rhythmic effect and adroness of execution.

The second concert will commence to-night at 8.15 o'clock, when it is announced that an entirely different programme will be given.

INDEPENDENCE IS FILIPINOS' REQUEST

But Roxas, Speaker of House, Will Not Accompany Mission to Washington

Manila, November 8.—Owing to dissensions in the Constitution Party, Manuel Roxas, Speaker of the Philippine House of Representatives, a leader in the party's affairs, will not accompany the first of two independence missions which are to leave for the United States in the near future, it has been learned.

The trouble within the party is due to friction between the Nationalista and Collectivista factions, which Manuel Quezon, President of the Senate, succeeded in quelling a few months ago for purposes of organizing Governor-General Leonard Wood and campaigning for independence.

It is stated in political circles that Roxas is afraid to accompany the mission to the islands for fear the Speaker pro tempore will gather sufficient strength while Roxas is away to maintain himself permanently in the speakership.

SHIPBUILDING ACTIVITIES IN GERMANY LESS

Tautonic Shipping Suffers From Financial Collapse

Hamburg, Nov. 8.—Germany's shipbuilding activity was short-lived. The terms of the Versailles Treaty, which deprived Germany of all her large commercial ships, brought many shipyards into existence and started a general construction boom. But the collapse of the mark, with consequent difficulties between labor and employers and the troubles builders found in financing purchases of raw materials called a sudden halt.

Germany had to give up its former enemies all of its ships larger than 1,600 tons and half of its ships with a tonnage between 1,600 and 1,000. Only ships suitable for coastwise shipping remained.

Roughly, a total of 4,000,000 tons of German shipping was turned over. As there had been a heavy loss of German ships in the war, there were only 600,000 tons left after the terms of the Versailles Treaty were executed.

New ships were built and Germans bought ships back from their former enemies until the German merchant fleet now has 2,600,000 tons of bottoms, more than five per cent of the merchant shipping of the world.

The Government gave large sums to encourage shipbuilding, supplying two-thirds of the cost. But German money fell in value so rapidly that Government appropriations depreciated before construction was completed on many of the ships.

Iron and coal prices in Germany rose higher than world prices, and the general depression of world trade caused many ships to be idle in German harbors, just as elsewhere.

Shipbuilders to-day are scarcely able to make operating expenses and have nothing left for building programmes. German exports are now worth only about 100,000,000 gold marks monthly, which is about one-tenth of the pre-war figures.

"The time has come when we've got to deal with things as they are," he asserted. "If we believe the P.R. is opposing the West in this fight, then we are not fair to Canada if we do not say so."

Interests of Canada

Later Mr. McGeer declared: "I believe the time has come when the railways must be subservient to the interests of Canada. Canada has for too long been subservient to the interests of its railways."

Mr. McGeer, when questioned, stated he did not think there was much chance of the Railway Commissioners, in reviewing the case, finding they had made a mistake in their first finding and there was little hope that satisfaction could be ordered in the brief hearing of a great issue that might be given by the Imperial Free trade conference.

Education Needed

The hope of western Canada lay in education of the rest of Canada. In letting the railway companies understand the people were "on to them" and in an appeal to the Government to change the laws, if it was finally found that the Railway Commission was interpreting the present laws correctly.

INDUSTRIAL TRUCE FOR FIVE YEARS IS URGED IN BRITAIN

London, Nov. 8.—An industrial truce for five years is proposed by Tom Sykes, secretary of the brotherhood movement, in order to start a new way of life in industry. Something corresponding to the functions of the League of Nations is internationally needed in industry, he thinks, to focus and practically direct the latent good will in society.

OCEAN AND COASTWISE SHIPPING

Application for Increased Rates Is to Be Opposed

Express Traffic Association Will Find Opposition to Their Application

Winnipeg, Nov. 8.—The application of the Express Traffic Association of Canada for an increase in rates will be opposed by many trade organizations throughout Western Canada when it is dealt with by the Board of Railway Commissioners at various Western sessions, the first of which will open at Edmonton on November 26. Not only will the Boards of Trade and other business associations oppose the request for higher express rates, but the provincial governments will co-operate against the increase, and the Canadian Council of Agriculture will, it is understood, enter opposition against it and ask for a reduction in rates.

The whole question will be dealt with by the Council of Agriculture at a meeting here next week. Producers are affected by increases, stated John Ward, secretary of the Council, today as they ship cream, eggs, poultry and pure bred livestock by express.

"It is more or less generally recognized," said Mr. Ward, "that the express companies put in this application for an increase in order to save off an application for a decrease, which has been impending for some time. Our efforts will not only be directed to opposing the increase, but we will endeavor also to get this decrease."

The Manitoba Dairy Association also will fight the increase, particularly as it applies to the shipment of cream.

The provincial governments of Manitoba and Saskatchewan have announced their intentions of co-operating with the Alberta administration, following a request sent them by Premier Herbert Greenfield.

After the meeting in Edmonton the Board of Railway Commissioners will go to the Pacific coast and then back to the prairies, arriving in Winnipeg for a session on December 10.

EUROPEAN AFFAIRS TO PLAY PART IN ELECTION IN U.S.

Bucharest, Nov. 7.—Charles J. Vopicka, former United States Minister to Rumania, who is regarded here as an authority on international affairs, while on a visit to Bucharest, was interviewed by the financial weekly, Bursa.

When asked his opinion about the present economic situation in Rumania and the measures necessary for improving exchange, Mr. Vopicka is reported to have said:

"If you want to better your money and raise the confidence of financial circles abroad, some way should be found to make the peasants pay their taxes. One of the main reasons why Czech exchange is so low is because the people are meeting their obligations to the state."

Mr. Vopicka added that he was making a careful study of European conditions at this time for use in the next year's presidential campaign in the United States, and gave it as his opinion that European affairs were destined to play a prominent part in the coming election.

COLONY TRAINING CENTRE FOR BLIND VETERANS IN U.S.

St. Louis, Nov. 8.—Establishment of a colony as a training centre for blind former service men will be discussed at the second annual convention of the United States Blind Veterans of the World War, to be held here November 12-17.

The purpose of the colony would be to help Americans blinded in service to realize their ambitions, according to the local arrangements. The colony is to be taught to include poultry raising on a commercial scale, landscaping, woodwork, weaving, music and civics.

It is also proposed to establish a trust fund to be used as a revolving loan fund for those desiring to engage in business.

Another subject to be considered is that of research work with a view to lightening the burdens of the blind.

Swedish-American to Give Canada Direct Service

Winnipeg, Nov. 7.—In order to provide a direct and convenient route from Scandinavia to Canada, the Swedish-American liner Stockholm will call at Halifax on westbound voyages after the New Year, G. Hillmer, Lundbrek, general manager of the line, stated here last night.

Mr. Lundbrek said Canada was likely to benefit by the restrictive immigration regulations in the United States and large numbers of people from Northern Europe, notably Scandinavia, Finland and the Baltic States, were turning their eyes toward Canada as their future home.

DENY SHARE IN FORMING UNION OF LONGSHOREMEN

Canadian Legion Shuns Connection With New Organization

The Canadian Legion Amalgamated Veterans at its general meeting last night declared it had no connection with the new union formed on the waterfront since the longshoremen of a Longshoremen's Union of Longshoremen were formed.

"That the Canadian Legion desires to be known that the matter was not a union of longshoremen, but a union of longshoremen who have loaded and discharged ships at this port since the formation of an independent union were inaugurated several weeks ago. With reports from Ottawa that the shipping Federation would not acknowledge the old union, the movement gained impetus and the suggestion to form a new union came from the shipping men of the city, who stated that they must deal with a body of men so that they could be assured of the workers they need rather than follow the unsatisfactory method of raising working crews individually. All but one of the firms interested have given support to the Independent Union, with the exception of one which stated that it stood out for no union at all."

The new union was formed and officers elected. Veterans who hesitated over working at the docks when it was a matter of strike-breaking only were less reluctant when it developed into a strike between two unions. The new organization is by no means confined to ex-service men, as many others have been enlisted in the ranks.

Discussion of the matter has taken place at other ex-service meetings. The opinion has been expressed that the organization is a strike-breaking organization and that its members individually in the question of strike-breaking or otherwise are not to be considered as members of one organization asked to accept office in the Independent Union declined because of the fact that it might consider its association with the longshoremen's differences.

NEW GRANT SHIPS

Winnipeg, Nov. 8.—The Longshoremen's Shipbuilding Company has received orders for the construction of two steamers for the grain carrying trade on the Great Lakes.

The time used in Pacific standard, for the 120th Meridian West. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours. The daylight is added to the figures for high tide to distinguish high water from low water. When high tide occurs at midday, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

The height is in feet and tenths of a foot, above the average level of lower low water.

Esquimaux.—To find the depth of water on the sill of the drydock at any tide, add 18.5 feet to the height of high water as above given.

Swedish-American to Give Canada Direct Service

Winnipeg, Nov. 7.—In order to provide a direct and convenient route from Scandinavia to Canada, the Swedish-American liner Stockholm will call at Halifax on westbound voyages after the New Year, G. Hillmer, Lundbrek, general manager of the line, stated here last night.

Mr. Lundbrek said Canada was likely to benefit by the restrictive immigration regulations in the United States and large numbers of people from Northern Europe, notably Scandinavia, Finland and the Baltic States, were turning their eyes toward Canada as their future home.

DENY SHARE IN FORMING UNION OF LONGSHOREMEN

Canadian Legion Shuns Connection With New Organization

The Canadian Legion Amalgamated Veterans at its general meeting last night declared it had no connection with the new union formed on the waterfront since the longshoremen of a Longshoremen's Union of Longshoremen were formed.

"That the Canadian Legion desires to be known that the matter was not a union of longshoremen, but a union of longshoremen who have loaded and discharged ships at this port since the formation of an independent union were inaugurated several weeks ago. With reports from Ottawa that the shipping Federation would not acknowledge the old union, the movement gained impetus and the suggestion to form a new union came from the shipping men of the city, who stated that they must deal with a body of men so that they could be assured of the workers they need rather than follow the unsatisfactory method of raising working crews individually. All but one of the firms interested have given support to the Independent Union, with the exception of one which stated that it stood out for no union at all."

The new union was formed and officers elected. Veterans who hesitated over working at the docks when it was a matter of strike-breaking only were less reluctant when it developed into a strike between two unions. The new organization is by no means confined to ex-service men, as many others have been enlisted in the ranks.

Discussion of the matter has taken place at other ex-service meetings. The opinion has been expressed that the organization is a strike-breaking organization and that its members individually in the question of strike-breaking or otherwise are not to be considered as members of one organization asked to accept office in the Independent Union declined because of the fact that it might consider its association with the longshoremen's differences.

Following close upon the announcement by Police Commissioner Walter E. Staneland that he would be in the field for reelection to the City Police Board, J. A. Though it had been rumored that Dr. Ernest Hall would retire from the field, with one year of his term of office yet unexpired, those rumors were denied to-day by Police Commissioner Staneland.

Dr. Hall, who is out of town, could not be reached, but it is now understood that he will finish out the unexpired portion of his term. This means that there will be but one seat on the Police Board to be contested, the mayor-elect filling the third chair.

To The Times this morning Capt. "Archie" M. Aitken admitted that he had been approached by his friends and asked to submit his name for police commissioner. Capt. Aitken

The council further expresses the hope that the Attorney-General will continue to show confidence in C. L. Harrison by permitting him to complete the work which he has begun with such distinction. HAS BEEN OUTSTANDING CAREER IN GOVERNMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Kennerley Rumford Have no Parallel in World of Music

Three of the best known figures in British musical circles are numbered in the roster of Dame Clara Butt's party now appearing in this city.

Perhaps there has been no combination in this generation as remarkable as that of Mr. Kennerley Rumford and his wife, who have been before the public for twenty-two years, the whole duration of their married life, constantly traveling, appearing before every class of audience, and in all climates. The only break was during Mr. Rumford's war services.

He won distinction during three years in the Great War, and earned his rank as captain as well as being mentioned in dispatches.

After his return from France and until the end of the war he was associated with the Special Intelligence Department of the War Office. Madame Butt also gave valuable assistance to war services, and for these efforts received her appointment in the Order of the British Empire.

The famous contralto has been before the public a little longer than her husband, having made her debut thirty years ago, while Mr. Rumford embraced the musical profession in 1896. Both had attained fame before marriage, and since then thousands of delighted listeners have applauded them.

To Proceed to Calgary In a chat with The Times to-day Mr. Rumford stated that Madame Butt had been delighted with the reception by British Columbia audiences, and was very glad to find brighter weather here after the heavy fogs on the Mainland. They will leave Victoria to-night for Calgary, and have a series of concert engagements to fulfill before leaving for the Old Country on December 1.

They intend to spend Christmas with their family in England, and then commence a new tour in January. In addition to their residence in South Hamstead, London, Mr. and Mrs. Kennerley Rumford have a country place near Wallingford, their homes in England have always been noted for the wonderful collection of sovereigns, and their journeys add to their remarkable popularity wherever the English language is spoken.

With them on their tour are Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Squire. Mr. Squire is the well-known violinist and ballad writer, who has been a prominent figure in the musical world of the Royal College of Music, and of the Guildhall School of Music, London, England.

AUTO DEALERS URGE OIL COMPANIES PAY
Want to Cut Collection Costs on Gasoline Tax

Strong representations by the automobile dealers' section of the Chamber of Commerce that the gasoline tax should be collected from the motorist, irrespective of whether the consumer was made at a meeting held at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday under the chairmanship of R. J. Jameson. The proposed new tax and its effect on licensees was discussed at length. Criticism of any intention to collect from the consumer was leveled on the grounds that it would be an expensive means of handling the revenue that a large portion of the money realized would be eaten up in expenses. The best means of collection it was declared would be to collect direct from the oil companies. License reductions were again before the meeting, but no definite action was taken as no later information was on hand of the Government's intention along this line.

Periodical reductions in licensees were strongly advocated. At present time allowance is made for a license for a quarter of a year, but it was recommended that allowances should be made for as low as one month a year, and the matter will be taken up with the Government.

The personal property tax as it concerns secondhand cars came in for further criticism. The abolition of the tax on second hand cars was strongly urged, as it was claimed that the personal property tax was paid when the license was paid. When a dealer was called upon to show a number of second hand cars included in his stock in his yearly return he was called upon to pay a tax that had already been paid once, it was claimed.

As the matter of license fees and the gasoline tax were matters in which automobile clubs are equally interested it was decided to co-operate with the clubs on these subjects.

MUNICIPALITIES TO BE PAID SOON

Liquor Profits to be Divided in December

The Government will pay out to municipalities the share of motor license and pari-mutuel earnings in about two weeks time, and the share of the liquor profits will be paid in December.

Information to this effect was received by Mayor Hayward to-day from the Deputy Minister of Finance in reply to a request to learn when the moneys would be paid over. This information, which will interest all municipalities, has been delayed by the division of the motor license and pari-mutuel taxes. The liquor moneys will not be ready until after the audit.

MAKE FINAL PLANS TO MARK ARMISTICE

Committee Announces Programme For Saturday, Sunday and Monday

At a meeting of the armistice committee held last evening in the rooms of the Veterans of France, final arrangements for the functions to be held under the jurisdiction of the committee during armistice were decided.

Beaumont Boggs occupied the chair and reports were given by Robert Macneil, honorary secretary, and F. D. Cameron, poppy campaign manager, concerning the activities to date. It was stated that over 8,000 poppies had been delivered to the schools and that about half of the large poppies and wreaths on hand had been sold for window and grave decoration. There is still a quantity of wreaths for sale at a moderate price, and they can be purchased at the depot, 909 Government Street.

Poppy Day The city had been divided between two conveners, Mrs. Crocker and Mrs. Murdoch, for the purpose of selling poppies at the section of Poppy Day, November 10. Mrs. Crocker will have her depot at the Surrey rooms, Yates Street, and Mrs. Murdoch at 809 Government Street. Poppies and collectibles are now available at these addresses, and any lady wishing to assist is asked to get in touch with the conveners as early as possible.

The following committee under Mr. Thorpe will look after the financial arrangements on Saturday, Messrs. Money, Saunders, Bloom and Howard.

The sub-committee in charge of the parade and memorial service arrangements reported that the following programme had been arranged: The parade on Sunday will fall in at Blanshard and Yates Streets at 2 p.m. Sgt.-Major F. Hatcher will act as marshal. He will be assisted by Sgt.-Major Freegard, who will have charge of the section of the parade composed of unattached ex-servicemen and also members of the organizations. C. P. O. Mitchell will take charge of the remaining units in the parade. The permanent force army and navy will of course be in charge of their own officers.

The procession will move off at 2.30 p.m., prominent in the parade will be the Sixteen Canadian Scottish brass band, 16th Canadian Scottish pipers, Royal Canadian Navy, military forces (permanent), military forces (militia), City of Victoria Fire Brigade band, City Cadet Corps, Girl Guides, Boy Scouts, Salvation Army band and ex-servicemen, attached and unattached. The route will be via Yates, Douglas, Fort, Government to the Parliament Buildings.

The order of service will be as follows:

Hymn—"O God, Our Help in Ages Past."

Invocation—Bishop of Columbia.

Scripture Reading—Bishop of Columbia.

Prayer—The Rev. Dr. J. Campbell.

Address—The Rev. J. H. White.

Hymn—"Onward Christian Soldiers."

Benediction—Bishop of Columbia.

"God Save the King."

The Salvation Army band will lead the parade, followed by the C.O.D.E. standard bearers will attend.

All veterans are asked to wear decorations on parade, either medals or ribbons.

In view of the fact that the veterans will not parade as separate organizations, but as one body, it is hoped that as many men as possible will parade, irrespective of whether they belong to an association or not.

On Saturday evening, November 10, a grand community entertainment will be held in the Armories, in the shape of a musical and dramatic performance. The Armistice Period Committee, and the Florence Nightingale Chapter, I.O.D.E. are co-operating with the Fifth Regiment on this occasion, and tickets can be secured at the poppy depot, or at the office of the ex-servicemen associations.

The First Application Makes Skin Cool and Comfortable

If you are suffering from eczema or some other skin trouble, you may quickly be rid of it by using Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Royal City Golfer Off To a Flying Start in First Half of Tourney

L. A. Lewis, of New Westminster, Makes First Eighteen Holes in Championship of Senior Northwest Golfers' Association in 78; J. E. Wilson, Victoria, and J. Collins, Seattle, Tie For Second Place; Second Round Being Played To-day

New Westminster, long the home of lacrosse champions, gained new fame yesterday when one of its citizens proceeded to show up a class field of golfers in the first round of the championship of the Senior Northwest Golfers' Association. When the cards of the 104 players had been turned in it was found that L. A. Lewis, a fifty-nine-year-old "boy" from the Royal City, had completed the eighteen holes at Oak Bay in seventy-eight.

This is a performance that would do justice to many of the younger players who go off in quest of national and international titles. Mr. Lewis was hitting a beautiful ball from the tee, approached well, was steady on the green and was seldom in trouble. If he succeeds in duplicating his score in the second round to-day it is certain that he will be crowned the first champion of the association.

Mr. Lewis's card was as follows: Out—44, 64, 43—37. In—54, 63, 44—41.

Mr. Lewis was the only player who managed to get under 80. Sixteen others, representing Victoria, Vancouver, Seattle and Spokane, kept their scores under 90. The majority were grouped in the nineties, while some can over the century mark.

Tie For Second Place

J. E. "Joe" Wilson, captain of the Victoria Golf Club, and Josiah Collins, of Seattle, were tied for second place, each turning in 80. Mr. Wilson had two forties, while Mr. Collins went out in 39 and came home in 41.

The other players whose scores yesterday give them a chance to win the championship, provided that they can slice a few strokes off their scores, and that Mr. Lewis does not come through with another record-breaking performance, are as follows: F. G. Lippy, Seattle, 83; R. W. Gibson, Victoria, 84; A. S. Kerry, Seattle, 86; F. Van Tyle, Seattle, 86; J. Sobey, Seattle, 86; Judge Lammman, Victoria, 86; J. A. Sayward, 87; A. Schofield, 87; J. A. Sayward, 88; F. Nation, Victoria, 88; J. R. Waghorn, Vancouver, 88; C. B. Burch, Vancouver, 88; A. W. Tidmarsh, Seattle, 89; and C. H. Jones, Spokane, 89.

Although the inter-city rivalry is very keen and each town is anxious to acclaim the winner, there is probably more feeling between the divisions which of the two divisions the champion will come from. At present everything favors the "youngsters" of the association, class "C," which includes golfers between the fifty-five and fifty-nine years of age, is making a strong bid for the honor. The three low men in the first round, Lewis, Wilson and Collins, are all from this field.

Veterans Are Keen

The "veterans" who are in class "A," sixty-five years and over, are determined to land the Barnard cup, emblematic of the championship and are staking their all on R. W. Gibson, of Victoria, who yesterday went around in 84.

Twelve players who entered the championship were scratched yesterday, but even at that the field, which got away, totalled over 100. Six players who are in before the sun went down, and as a result none were handicapped by the shades of night.

Interest over the outcome of today's round is particularly keen. The players started off on the second half of the championship at 8.30 o'clock, and the last pair drove off at 10 o'clock. The winner of the championship should be known by 3.30 this afternoon.

Judge Lammman, of Victoria, and L. A. Lewis, New Westminster, were tied for best net score in yesterday's round, but as one player cannot win more than one prize, the honor passed to the "judge" without a draw.

Annual Meeting

This afternoon at 5 o'clock the association will hold its first annual meeting at the Victoria Golf Club. Officers for the ensuing year are being elected, and the scene of the next championship is being decided.

To-night at 8 o'clock the golfers will attend the first annual banquet of the association, which will be held at the Union Club.

Yesterday's results were as follows:

Champions Only Win After Long Overtime Period

Metropolitans Make Firsts Hustle to Cop Opening Senior Hoop Game

Cecil Hay Has Bolstered Up Mets; Christ Church Girls Spring Surprise

S.S. Hoop Results
Senior Men—First Presbyterians 32, Metropolitans 24. Ten minutes overtime.
Senior Girls—Christ Church 20, Metropolitans 12.
Intermediate "A" Boys—Falcons 22, James Bays 17.

A capacity house greeted the opening of the 1923-24 Sunday School basketball league at the Trades Hall Gymnasium last night. The class of basketball players in all three divisions speaks well for the success of the leagues this season.

The senior men's game proved one of the most exciting since 1920, and the First Presbyterians, last year's champions, found stiff opposition in the Metropolitans, who are very strong in all departments of the game. Playing without Vernot Jones, who was unable to turn out, the Mets were in the lead throughout the greater part of the game leading at half time by 11 to 8, and going further ahead in the second period, at one time leading 23 to 17.

Cecil Hay, who started on the local high school team some years ago, has lost none of his old skill, playing a remarkably fine game at centre for the Mets. Stan Moore showed class on the attack, and Gus McIntyre played some nice clean shots from a long distance.

Tie at Full Time

The First Presbyterians showed much of their old speed and combination near the close of the game when they rapidly closed up the gap and secured a one point lead just before the final whistle blew. Hay tied the score on a free throw leaving the full time score 24 all.

After five minutes of exciting play the score still remained a tie and it was only during the additional five minutes that the Firsts stepped out and notched six points keeping their opponents scoreless.

With Vernot Jones added to last night's team the Mets will have to be reckoned as serious contenders for the title this year.

A Surprise Packet

The Christ Church senior girls were hardly expected to down the Mets in the first round of the senior girls' league, but surprised themselves by winning with eight points to spare.

The shooting of Kathy Wellburn and Florrie Galt was the outstanding feature of the cathedral girls' win, these two players securing eighteen points.

Muriel Daniels put in some real good shooting for the Mets, netting six points, while Audrey Jost added four points.

At half time the Mets were only one point behind and on resuming play they showed a new drive that completely surprised the Firsts. Failing to hold their advantage they dropped behind again during the last five minutes when the Christ Church five started a lively barrage.

At the end of which found a place in the net. The game was fast and exciting, both teams playing well.

The teams were:
Firsts—Phyllis Gates, 10; Grace Wellburn, M. McMillan, 2; Metropolitans—Blossom Barnett, 2; Muriel Daniels, 4; Audrey Jost, 4; Violet Dunn, Ella Lewis.

Falcons Winners

Falcons secured a hard-fought victory over the James Bay Methodists, last season's winners.

The Falcons are very speedy this season and this division is the leading team on the field.

The Bays are hardly as fast as they were last year, but are still a very speedy quintette only losing out by five points on account of keeping up the score several occasions.

Bob Whyte refereed.

The teams were:
Bays—Hocking 2, McLennan 6, Bothwell 4, Lupton 12, Olsen 6, McKenzie 1, Foubister 4, McCann 2.

ELEVEN FIGHTS IN TEN WEEKS IS WHAT DUNDEE HAS PLANNED

New York, Nov. 8.—Eleven bouts in ten weeks is the busy programme outlined for Johnny Dundee, world's featherweight champion, by his manager, James J. Johnston.

The series, which begins at Frontenac, Kans., November 13, when Dundee meets Jimmie Bennett, will take the champion through the Mid-West and South Atlantic states and will end in Portland, Ore., January 27.

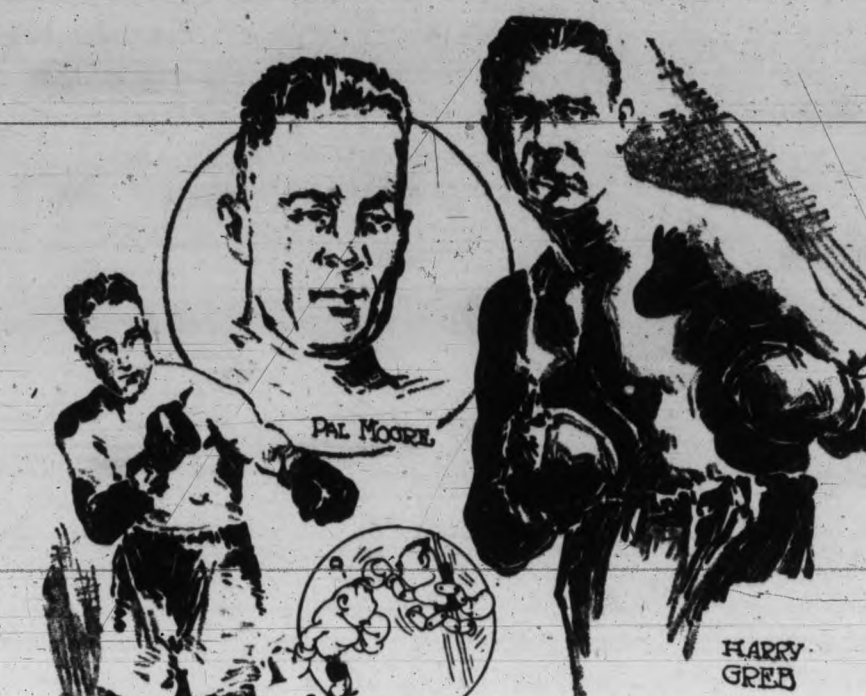

In addition to Bennett, Dundee's list of opponents includes Joey Fox, Harry Mendelsohn, Joey Sanger, Joe Gorman, Bobby Harper, and other well-known boxers.

MONTREAL MAY GET A BERTH IN BALL LOOP

Montreal, Nov. 8.—Montreal's chances of obtaining the Syracuse International Baseball League franchise next season are brighter following the visit of President Sam Rice of the St. Louis Cardinals.

FORM USUALLY MAKES CHAMPIONS BUT THESE BOYS LACK IT

ously on the tip of his left toe. You expected to see him go tumbling to the earth, flat on his expansive back. But he didn't. His drives sailed through the air with tremendous force and unerring accuracy. No other player drove better, or as far. Yet he was utterly without form, as form is known in golf.

Form in the Ring

You are supposed to respect the teachings of form in the prize ring. Most of all the champions have been finished performers in this respect. Jim Corbett had beautiful form, and set the style for Americans. Alvin Attell, Willie Lewis, Packey McFarland, Mike Gibbons, Jack Britton and Johnny Kilbane were interesting performers in action. Nest punchers, left blockers, flashy footworkers. They did their work well and properly.

Form is not without its enthusiastic supporters in the ring to-day. You will travel a long and circuitous road before you find a more formidable boxer than Benny Leonard, and as a hitter, Jack Dempsey has matchless form. We never saw a fighter so good at an all-New Zealand team as on the right track.

With Vernot Jones added to last night's team the Mets will have to be reckoned as serious contenders for the title this year.

Activities in Hockey Camps Are Very Keen

Regulars Are Fast Rounding Into Shape and Substitutes Are Playing Hard to Gain Positions; Hec Fowler Finally Agrees to Come to Victoria and Play Goal; Speck at Workout To-day; Harris Signs With Seattle

As the time of the opening of the Coast hockey season draws close the activities of the rival managers are becoming more keen and the players are digging in their toes with greater zest. The regulars, while sure of their places on the teams, are devoting most of their time to perfecting their shooting eyes, getting adjusted to their skates and improving their wind. The other players, who are battling for places as substitutes, are going like young tornadoes in order to make a good impression upon the managers and make sure of places on the same.

The Cougars are not well away with the signing of Hec Fowler, the temperamental goalie. Lester Patrick, manager of the Victoria hockey team, received a four-word telegram from Hec yesterday which read, "Will arrive Victoria Saturday."

This relieves the Cougars of their last source of worry. With Hec in goal—the team will be the one to beat for the championship this year. The Cougars are stronger than they were last year because they are assured of substitutes who will be able to hold their place with most of the regulars.

HALIFAX RESENTS RAISING OF FUNDS FOR THE BLUENOSE

Halifax, Nov. 8.—The Halifax Herald, donor of the international fishermen's cup and whose proprietor is a member of the board of trustees of the cup, says the move to raise funds in Toronto for the Blue Nose is a misapprehension of the true situation. The statement adds:

"Since the question has been prematurely raised in Toronto, The Herald feels called upon to state that there has been no disposition to deal unfairly with the Canadian vessel and that the raising of funds in Toronto for the Blue Nose outside of Nova Scotia is quite unnecessary."

H. R. Silver, chairman of the trustees, said: "The move was quite unnecessary. We have adequate funds available here to meet requirements. The question of expense money for the Bluenose has not yet been taken up."

THREE BIG MINOR BASEBALL LEAGUES MAY GATHER AT A MEETING

Chicago, Nov. 8.—An invitation to the club owners of the International and Pacific Coast Leagues to meet in joint session with the American Association here December 14, was issued last night by Thomas J. Hickey, president of the latter organization.

The annual meeting of the American Association club owners will be held that day and President Hickey suggests a joint meeting of all class AA leagues for a conference prior to the meeting of the major leagues to be held here December 12.

President Hickey said a number of important subjects concerning the class AA leagues, among them the draft issue, should be considered before the club owners go in session with the majors.

Three big minor leagues at present are opposed to the draft, but the sentiment in the Pacific Coast League is said to be in favor of the restoration.

"Old all-star" patrons will be given an opportunity to-day to see Zev, Harry F. Sinclair's three-year-old filly in action. Zev is entered in the Pimlico Special No. 2, 14,000 added, at a mile and one furlong. It will be his first appearance since his defeat by In Memoriam in the Landonia championship.

RETAINS MAT TITLE

Chicago, Nov. 7.—Johnny Meyers, of Chicago, world's middleweight wrestling champion, retained his title here last night, winning from Joe Turner, of Washington, holder of the International Wrestling title, in a fall-out of three. Meyers won the first fall in twenty-seven minutes and fifty-five seconds, with a stopper hold, while Turner took the second fall in thirty minutes and nineteen seconds, with a toe lock. Meyers conceding the fall to prevent an injury to his leg.

He then took the third fall in four minutes and thirty-five seconds. Turner conceding the fall and the match after being completely knocked out when Meyers picked him up and threw him heavily to the floor.

FOUR TEAMS WILL COMPETE IN CITY AMATEUR HOCKEY

At a meeting of the Victoria Senior Amateur Hockey League held yesterday afternoon it was decided to reverse the decision of the former meeting which voted for a two-team league and have four clubs in the city league. The league also decided to have the all-star team, which will wear the colors of the winning team in the inter-city series.

The Pacifics, last year champions, the Shells, Colonist and an aggregation of old-timers will make up the four teams. The "Oldtimers," according to reports, have a very formidable array of talent, including George Straith, Percy Watson, Darrell Spence and Mat Hunter, and expected to give the former champions a big run for the pennant. The four teams are to be evenly balanced to assure close and interesting games.

Officials of the league are confident that this year will see a great revival in the amateur hockey, and arrangements have already been made for the entertainment of the large crowd of fans that it is hoped will be on hand for the different games. Plans are being drawn up to get the league under way at the end of the present month. Two games will be played each Wednesday night, and the fans will be assured of some close and exciting games.

Inter-City League

The president, George Warren, will make a trip to Vancouver and Seattle this week-end to look into the possibility of an inter-city league. George Warren, Harry Stewart, Percy Watson and Bill McAllister were appointed to interview Lester Patrick, manager of the local rink, and to make arrangements for the use of the ice during the coming season. The committee interviewed Lester Patrick this morning and reported that satisfactory arrangements were made with the local manager to continue the senior league. Manager Patrick told the committee that he would give all the assistance he could to make this year one of the best seasons that amateur hockey has ever seen.

CHARGES STUDENTS GETTING AWAY FROM BRITISH TEACHINGS

Lampoon of Newbolt Shows Dangerous Tendencies in U.B.C., Hinchliffe Warns

British Columbia University students are getting away from British teachings, Joshua Hinchliffe, Conservative member for Victoria, warned the Legislature yesterday. The action of the students in lampooning Sir Henry Newbolt, the distinguished British poet, in the "Ubyesey," showed that they did not possess the instincts of gentlemen, he declared.

When Sir Henry Newbolt came to Vancouver he was invited to speak to university students. Mr. Hinchliffe explained the subject of "Poetry and Patriotism." The following paper, contained a parody on "Drake's Drum," one of Sir Henry's poems. The parody was called "Henry's Horn." It contained several disparaging references to Sir Henry, he said.

"To say the least," declared Mr. Hinchliffe, "this action towards their guest did not show the spirit of a gentleman."

Mr. Hinchliffe said he had experienced great difficulty in securing a copy of the university paper. "I suppose the students were ashamed of it," he remarked. "They showed full-blooded patriotism. Nelson had gone forever; that Sir Henry Newbolt perhaps represented 1923 British opinions but the students were out of touch with such opinions."

Leaving British Teachings

Referring to Mrs. Mary Ellen Smith's advice that Britishers should be welcomed in Canada, Mr. Hinchliffe demanded: "Are they going to come here, to a country where they must pay high taxes and support an institution where the students are getting away from British teachings?"

The most regrettable feature of the Newbolt incident, he said, was that news of it had been published widespread.

Mr. Hinchliffe said that a university text-book which he had attacked had been abolished, and he was prepared to praise the new book, if it was satisfactory, as much as he had denounced the old.

Wants Educational Survey

Mr. Hinchliffe expressed satisfaction over the report that the Department of Education was willing that an educational survey of the Province should be conducted, provided there was a sufficient demand for it. He felt, however, that the Department of Education should have commenced a survey before public opinion forced this action.

"What should be the nature of such a survey?" he asked. "First it should determine the Government's responsibility. The ideal education is that which sends young people out into the world physically, mentally, morally and spiritually fitted to make their way as good citizens. At present religious education in the schools is forbidden; so apparently the Government is not responsible for the students' spiritual health."

Mr. Hinchliffe protested against any attempt to rush legislation through in the dying hours of the session.

Some solution of the present beer situation must be found, he declared, but he confessed that he was unable to offer a plan which would be satisfactory.

PROVINCE NEEDS SETTLERS MORE THAN TOURISTS

Settlers' Roads Are More Important Than Scenic Highways, Catherwood Says

Settlers' roads are vastly more important to the general public in British Columbia than tourist highways, J. A. Catherwood, Conservative Member for Dewdney, maintained in the Legislature yesterday. One settler in the country was worth a score of tourists, he added, and if the settlers were cared for the tourists would naturally follow.

Mr. Catherwood referring to the completion of the Transprovincial Highway, Hon. J. H. King, Federal Minister of Public Works, had made up his mind on the question of a route and he understood not long ago that Hon. Dr. Sutherland had done so. Now the question was, where was the road to go? He thought it time a Government announcement was made.

Mr. Catherwood advocated better dyking conditions, recommending that dyking commissioners should be elected and not appointed, as they are at present. They should function under an inspector, he said. At present not one commissioner was satisfactory.

He said if the Sumas reclamation scheme worked out satisfactorily it would be time to praise it. If it did, settlers would have to be secured to fill the reclaimed lands. At present there were settlers on Nicomen Island, holding the best of land, but little was done to help them, he declared.

The Dewdney member criticized Attorney-General Manson's action in cancelling all appointments of justices of the peace and failing to reappoint some of the good officials dismissed.

Civil Service Facts

The fifth annual report of Civil Service Commissioner W. H. MacInnes was presented to the Legislature to-day by Hon. J. D. MacLean, Provincial Secretary.

The Civil List of the Province on December 31, 1922, numbered 1,277, of whom 924 were men, 353 women, and 27 juniors, the report shows. Of the 924 men, 366 were returned soldiers and 618 civilians, as compared with 929 men a year ago, of whom 363 were returned soldiers, and 626 civilians. The preference granted to returned soldiers is steadily increasing the proportion of their number employed in the Civil Service. A large number of these are men with disabilities, over twenty being amputation cases.

The permanent appointments during the year totaled 44, 24 being made by order-in-council and 122 by the Commission. Of the 146 permanent appointments, 75 were men of whom 45 were returned soldiers. There were also 278 temporary appointments of whom 115 were men, 146 women and 17 juniors; of the 115 men returned soldiers, 77 were returned men.

VIEW LANDAUL STEEL PROJECT WITH DISTRUST

B.C. Division of Mining Institute Sends Adverse Finding to Premier

Believes in Due Time Resources Will Form Valuable Asset

Criticism of the Landaul Coast Range Steel project along the lines voiced by H. Mortimer Lamb, secretary of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy, at the recent meeting of business men of the Island and mainland to hear the Victoria Chamber of Commerce report is contained in a communication to the Premier. Among other comments is one stating the executive of the institute regards with grave distrust the proposals of the Coast Range Steel Limited. The secretary writes that the action of the executive committee in forwarding the communication to the Premier and the views expressed therein were endorsed at a general meeting of members held in Trail last month. The letter reads: "By virtue of its charter granted by Act of Parliament, the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy, a national organization representative of the mining profession and industry of Canada has always sought to avail itself of opportunities to act in an advisory capacity to the government of Canada to which it owes responsibility in the service of the mining industry of the country."

Desires to Assist

The British Columbia division of the institute has for some time past interested itself in the question of the establishment of an iron and steel industry in this Province and ardently desires to assist in any movement having a justifiable basis towards that end. In evidence of this desire the action of the division may be cited in recommending last year to the Minister of Mines the advantage of securing the co-operation of the Dominion Geological Survey to determine more definitely the iron ore resources of the Province. We look forward to the possibility of an iron and steel industry in British Columbia—founded on proven facts and justified by industrial conditions yet to materialize.

"With Grave Distrust"

For these reasons the executive of the division views the problem of an iron and steel industry as one of grave importance to the Province and as being fraught with such ultimate possibilities affecting its standing in the eyes of the world as to call for the greatest possible care in the matter of its presentation, but regards with grave distrust the proposals of the Coast Range Steel Limited, in which it appears that the endorsement of the state is considered to be necessary to the acceptance of conjectures upon yet unproven statements and calculations.

Our executive has devoted considerable time to the consideration of information regarding the salient features affecting pig iron production and without further reference to the question of the supply of iron ore than is implied in the evident desirability to await the report of the geologist employed by the Dominion Government at the investigation of the resources, it has concluded that the main criticism of the proposal of the Coast Range Steel Limited may be summarized in general terms as follows:

"There are no reasons for supposing that pig iron could be produced in British Columbia any cheaper than it is now being produced at established centres, and therefore the opportunity for competition in the open market is problematical, while the local market must rely upon possible future developments to absorb the product of a plant such as is proposed."

"The whole scheme therefore depends for its justification upon future developments and not upon existing facts."

"Our executive feels called upon to voice its considered opinion that it is not in the interest of the country to undertake any more than it is to the interest of the taxpayer to embark upon an undertaking that in its essentials amounts to a gigantic proposal for discounting future possibilities."

"On the score of finance, the following considerations are added:

"1. Any proposition requiring guarantees covering the entire capital must be inherently unsound."

"2. If a proposition is economically attractive, capital is usually available for it without the Government guarantees."

"3. Under such conditions capital requires reasonable proof of the attractiveness and a government guarantee financial assistance upon less assurance of security than would be required by the private investor."

"The character of the liability proposed by the Coast Range Steel Limited is not such as to warrant its being incurred by the Provincial Government at this time and in view of the fact that iron and steel industries in Eastern Canada, where natural conditions are at least as favorable in British Columbia and moreover, have often failed to show a profit despite government assistance."

"Our executive, on behalf of the institute, is most happy to place its services at the disposal of the Government in any further investigations of this matter."

"The members of the executive subscribing to this letter are: Thomas Graham, chairman; H. G. Nichols, F. W. Guernsey, Prof. H. N. Thomson, Nichol Thompson, Prof. W. L. Ughow, H. Y. Russell, S. J. Crocker and Col. J. E. Leckie."

NEW SERIAL STORY

THE STEP ON THE STAIR

BY ANNA KATHARINE GREEN

Author of "The Leavenworth Case," "The Pillage Ball," "The Mystery of the Hasty Arrow," Etc.

I had turned the corner at Thirty-fifth Street and was halfway down the block in my search for a number I had just taken from the telephone book when my attention was suddenly diverted by the quick movements and peculiar aspect of a man whom I saw emerging from the doorway of a large office building some fifty feet or so ahead of me.

Though to all appearance in a desperate hurry to take the taxi-cab waiting for him at the curb, he was so under the influence of some other anxiety almost equally pressing that he at once hesitated, and I saw him peering back over his shoulder towards me, as if he were searching for some one in the street, which, to my amazement, presently centred on myself.

The man was a stranger to me, but evidently I was not so to him, for his expression changed at once as our eyes met and, without waiting for me to advance, he stopped hastily towards me, saying as we came together:

"Mr. Bartholomew, is it not?"

I bowed. He had spoken my name. "I have been waiting for you many interminable minutes," he hurriedly continued. "I have had bad news from home—a child hurt—and must go at once. So, if you will pardon the informality, I will hand over to you here and now the letter about which I telephoned you, together with a key which I am assured you will find very useful. I am sorry I cannot stop for further explanations; but you will pardon me, I know. You can have nothing to ask which will not keep till to-morrow?"

"No; but—"

"I got no further, something in my tone or something in my look seemed to alarm him for he took an immediate advantage of my hesitation to repeat anxiously:

"You are Mr. Bartholomew, are you not?" Edgar Quenton Bartholomew?"

I smiled a polite acquiescence and, taking a card from my pocketbook, handed it to him.

He gave it one glance and passed it back. The name corresponded exactly with the one he had just uttered.

With a muttered apology and a hasty nod, he turned and fairly ran to the waiting taxi-cab. Had he looked back—

But he did not, and I had the doubtful satisfaction of seeing him ride off before I could summon my wits or pocket the articles which had been so unceremoniously thrust upon me.

For what had seemed so right to him seemed anything but right to me. I was Edgar Q. Bartholomew without question, but I was very sure that I was not the Edgar Quenton Bartholomew he thought he was addressing. This I had more than suspected when he first accosted me. But when, after consulting my card, he handed me the letter and its accompanying parcel, all doubt vanished. He had given into my keeping articles meant for another man. And I knew the man.

Yet I had not seen this stranger—so without an attempt to rid him of my misapprehension. Had seen him hasten away to his injured child without uttering one word which would have saved him from an error the consequences of which no one, not even myself, could at that moment foresee.

Why did I do this? I call myself a gentleman; moreover I believe myself to be universally considered as such. Why then—

Let events tell. Follow my next move and look for explanations later. The man who had accosted me was a lawyer by the name of Miller. Of that I felt assured. Also that he had been coming from his own office when he first rushed into view. Of that office I should be glad to have a momentary glimpse; also I should certainly be much more composed in mind and ready to meet the possible results of my inexcusable action if I knew whether or not the man for whom I had been taken—the other Edgar Q. Bartholomew, would come for that letter and parcel of which I had myself become the guilty possessor.

The first matter could be settled in no time. The directory just inside the building from which I had seen Mr. Miller emerge would give me the number of his office. But to determine just how I might satisfy myself on the other point was not so easy. To take up my stand somewhere in the vicinity—in a doorway, let us say—from which I could watch all who entered the building in which I had located Mr. Miller's office seemed the natural and more-over the safest way. For the passers-by were many and I could easily slip, unobserved, into and out of the crowd.

Policy galled for a watch from the street, but who listens to policy at the age of twenty-three; and after a moment or two of indecision, I hurried forward and, entering the building, was soon at a door on the third floor bearing the name of:

JOHN E. MILLER

Attorney at Law

Satisfied from the results of my search and a meeting with Mr. Miller in the street below that he neither knew my person nor that of the other Bartholomew (strange as this latter may seem when one considers the character of the business linking them together), I felt that I had no reason to fear being recognized by any of his clients; and, knocking the knob of the door in hand, I boldly sought to enter. But I found the door locked, nor did I receive any response to my knock. Evidently Mr. Miller kept his office hours.

But I was not to be deterred. Annoyed as I was at the mischance, for I had really hoped to come upon some one there of sufficient responsibility to be of assistance to me in my perplexity, I yet derived some gratification from the thought that when the other Bartholomew came, he would meet with the same disappointment.

But would he come? There seemed to be the best of reasons why he should. The appointment made for him by Mr. Miller was one, which, judging from what had just taken place between that gentleman and myself, was of too great importance to be heedlessly ignored. Perhaps in another moment—at the next stop of the elevator—I should behold his gay and careless figure step into sight within twenty feet of me. Did I wish him to find me standing in hesitation before the lawyer's closed door? No, anything but that, especially as I was by no means sure what I might be led into doing if we thus came eye to eye. The letter in my pocket—the key of whose usefulness I had been assured—was it or was it not in me to hand them over without a fuller knowledge of what I might lose in doing so?

JAPANESE LEAVING FISHING INDUSTRY ON ISLAND COAST

Seek Other Employment as New Fishing Regulations Reduce Their Licenses

Federal Government Order is Getting Results; White Fishermen Pleased

Special to The Times

Port Alberni, Nov. 8.—Japanese are being forced out of the fishing industry of the West Coast of Vancouver Island by the new Federal Government regulations under which Japanese fishing licenses are reduced in number every year. After some difficulties when the order first went into effect, the new fishing regulations are now bringing about the desired result. The sale of numerous Japanese fishing boats, in evidence of the fact that the Orientals realize that their time in the fishing industry is drawing to an end.

Under the new Federal regulations the number of fishing licenses issued to Japanese was cut by one-third last year. A similar cut was made this year. Next year the present number will be cut a third. Over a period of years, all Orientals will be forced out of the fishing business. Besides the Japanese who already have lost their license by law, many have become discouraged and quit the business of their own accord, going into lumber-mills and other work. It is estimated that well over one-half of the Japanese former occupied in fishing have left the business since the new regulations came into force.

Fishermen Pleased

The independent fishermen of the West Coast are well satisfied with the result of the new regulations and the work of the Duff Commission, whose investigations were followed by the order gradually reducing the number of Japanese fishermen, according to Major Richard Burde, M.P.P. for this district. The white fishermen have been waiting for years for regulations in the number of Japanese licenses and now they feel that they have won their fight.

PULPWOOD EMBARGO OPPOSED AT INQUIRY

Ottawa, Nov. 8.—Any present embargo on exportation of Canadian pulpwood was unopposed by a number of lumber dealers and contractors who appeared yesterday before the Royal Commission investigating the Canadian pulp and paper industry. These witnesses are engaged in purchasing wood from farmers and settlers, which they in turn export to paper concerns in the United States.

It was brought out that from eighty to ninety-five per cent. of this work is popular, for which, it was claimed, there is no demand in Canada.

VETERANS' ALLIANCE TO MEET IN WINNIPEG

Ottawa, Nov. 8.—The next meeting of the Dominion Council of the Dominion Veterans' Alliance will be held in Winnipeg. This was decided at the closing session of the council here yesterday.

Major F. J. Taylor, K.C., D.S.O., Portage la Prairie, was re-elected chairman of the Alliance.

Commendation for the extensive adjustment and executive services which the Great War Veterans' Association has performed on behalf of all veterans and dependents was voiced by the Alliance in a resolution. The necessity of carrying on this work was emphasized and sympathy was expressed with any efforts that might be made by the G.W.V.A. adequately to finance its continuance. A lax medical examination of ex-soldier immigrants from the British Isles was declared to be responsible for a considerable number of men being allowed to enter Canada whose disabilities were such as to prohibit them earning an adequate living. A resolution was passed urging the immigration authorities to make a stricter examination of those about to leave the British Isles.

Misph Court No. 2, Order of the Amaranth, will hold a rummage sale Saturday morning, November 10, at 643 Fort Street, next to Terry's.

MUST BUILD P.G.E. INTO PRINCE GEORGE. H. C. PERRY ASSERTS

Some Chance of Making Ends Meet With Line Completed, Northern Member Says

With $43,000,000 already spent on the line, the Pacific Great Eastern Railway should be pushed northward into Prince George as soon as possible, H. C. Perry, Liberal Member of the northern city, declared in the Legislature yesterday afternoon. With the line built into Prince George, Mr. Perry declared, the Government would have some chance of making ends meet and reducing deficits.

"What reason can this Government possibly have for not spending another half-million dollars to finish the line?" he demanded.

Speaking of possible railway extensions into the Peace River district, Mr. Perry admitted that at present the Government would face heavy expenditure in building the P.G.E. into that section of the Province. He urged that every support be given some scheme which would open up the wealthy districts of Northeastern British Columbia.

Mr. Perry spoke of the suggestion, which had been made in certain quarters, that the Government should buy the line from the Peace River east of the Rockies to be given to Alberta, but he stoutly maintained that the people of British Columbia some day would have great cause to be thankful that such a course had not been adopted. He declared that the Peace River sections of this Province were richer in natural wealth than any other was in British Columbia.

Mr. Perry said he would like to see the House pass a vote providing for a trip into the Peace River country by all members of the Legislature.

He congratulated Premier Oliver upon the audit which is being made of P.G.E. accounts, "if that would satisfy the Premier's accusers."

Urges "Training Farms"

Mr. Perry advocated the establishment of "training farms" in Western Canada, where intending settlers might be trained in farming, so they would be ready to take up pre-emptions or purchase farms. He advised the Government to have officials go into the Peace River section and place more settlers on the land. Such officials and district agriculturists should ascertain what produce was being raised by farmers and also what were the demands of buyers, so that the two agencies could get together to their mutual profit.

He took Mr. Pooley to task for stating that thousands of settlers were leaving Central British Columbia because of Government inactivity. The real reason was, he said, that the days of the Conservative Government all the good lands were sold to the speculator, and these were held at prices ranging from $20 to $25 per acre. The bona-fide settlers could not get land and so left the country after looking it over.

Big Transformation

To-day, said Mr. Perry, a great transformation could be seen in his section of the Province. Roads were being built, lands broken up, creameries constructed and schools erected. The settlers were getting results, although they need more assistance. He recommended rural libraries, rural nursing and, in short, anything which would give the struggling farmer a chance.

Advocates Farm Loans

Mr. Perry advocated the revival of the agricultural credit loan system. He claimed that progress in land settlement would be stimulated materially if the settler could get a loan from the Government at reasonable interest. In fact, he said, one of the chief reasons why the settlers were experiencing such difficulty was that in Central British Columbia there were no loan companies where a man could secure a loan.

Wants Farmers' Roads

Mr. Perry had much to find with the Government for paying highways, but he felt that in future the farmers should have first choice and that settlers' roads would mean the rapid development

Well-Merited Success

A distinguished citizen, honored politically and professionally, Dr. R. V. Pierce, whose picture appears above, made a success few have equalled. His pure herb remedies which have stood the test for fifty years are still among the "best sellers." Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a blood medicine and stomach alternative. It clears the skin, beautifies it, increases the blood supply and the circulation, and cures all eruptions, pimples, and eruptions, quickly. Beauty is but skin deep and good blood is beneath both. For your blood to be good, your stomach must be in condition, your liver active. This Discovery of Doctor Pierce's puts you in fine condition, with all the organs active. Ask your nearest druggist for Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, in tablet or liquid form, or send 10 cents for trial package of tablets to Dr. Pierce's Laboratory in Bridgeburg, Ontario.

of the Province. He advocated construction of a road through Yellow Head Pass and along the Upper Fraser, so that prize visitors could enter this Province by the northern pass, journey to Prince George and thence down through historic Cariboo.

The Fort George member, speaking of game conditions, said there was no need for a close season on fur-bearing animals which could not be enforced, anyway, he declared. He recommended registration of trappers, saying that as the trapper was a poacher at present he would develop conservation instincts if he had to keep his own territory from depletion.

M. A. Jackson, K.C., Chairman of the Game Conservation Board, announced that he had already recommended trap-line registration.

OLIVER CHALLENGES ACCUSERS TO MAKE DEFINITE CHARGES

Hopes Charges Untrue

"I dare not go back to my constituency with the admission that the Rossiter charges were not even debated on the floor of the House," Mr. Hinchliffe declared. "The Premier says that if the charges are true he should be in a penitentiary and declares that they are untrue. I believe that every member of this House hopes that these charges are untrue for the sake of British Columbia, for the sake of the Government and for the sake of the Premier himself. I honestly hope that the charges are untrue."

"But while I hope that they are untrue the fact remains that the charges have been made, directly and solemnly under the authority of an official position and they have been published to the world."

"The eyes of the people of British Columbia," Mr. Hinchliffe declared emphatically, "are on the Legislature at this time. They are anxiously watching to see what is going to be done. This Legislature must act. We dare not ignore these matters."

"These charges," Mr. Hinchliffe asserted, "must be thoroughly investigated by an impartial tribunal. The people of this Province must have full confidence in that tribunal."

Why Call Rossiter?

Mr. Hinchliffe quoted an article from The Times, stating that Rossiter is to be called before the Public Accounts Committee to give evidence against P.G.E. matters and that J. W. de B. Farris, former Attorney-General, is to preside over the committee.

"Why call Mr. Rossiter?" Mr. Hinchliffe demanded. "What has he done that he should be called? Surely there is no hailing to be done the man against whom the charges are made should be the first one to be halled."

"Charges were made last year and were referred to the Public Accounts Committee and the man who made the charges refused to produce one iota of proof," the Premier retorted.

R. H. Pooley, Conservative Member for Esquimalt, interjected that during the Public Accounts Committee session last year, he had demanded that witnesses be subpoenaed to give evidence on charges preferred by W. K. Ewing, Conservative Member for Rossmore, and that the Premier refused to give evidence on the charges.

The Premier replied that he and officials of the P.G.E. under oath, denied the charges last year. The Public Accounts Committee, he said, had been told that all P.G.E. papers were at its disposal.

"I moved that the accountant of the P.G.E. be subpoenaed and the charges be referred to the committee," Mr. Pooley insisted.

Trying to Blame Rossiter?

"Does the Government intend to make it appear from the beginning that Rossiter is the criminal?" Mr. Hinchliffe demanded.

The Premier declared that he had not made the statements published in The Times that Rossiter was to be halled before the Public Accounts Committee.

"I may say as leader of the Government, that I have no knowledge of any such statement being made by any member of the Government," he said. "I took time to deny that all the statements published about the Government I would have to work all the time, including Sundays."

"He has not yet replied that there is the intention of hailing Rossiter before the Public Accounts Committee," Mr. Hinchliffe replied.

"Until he does I must go on the assumption that he report in The Times is correct."

"The Government never interferes with the work of the Public Accounts Committee," the Premier asserted.

"The Government has never said who should appear before the Committee."

Unsuitable Tribunal

"If you are going to hail Rossiter you are choosing the most unsuitable tribunal possible," Mr. Hinchliffe charged. "Whatever decision the Public Accounts Committee reaches the reputation of the Premier will be in jeopardy."

"Well, for the last sixty-eight years I have always taken care of my own reputation and I am not asking the honorable gentleman to assist me now," the Premier remarked with a chuckle.

"There are three good reasons why the Public Accounts Committee is an unsuitable tribunal," Mr. Hinchliffe went on. "First, it is composed of practically the same members as last year with the addition of two, one of whom was at the time the charges were made. Second, the committee, whether you look at it from a Conservative or Liberal standpoint, is partisan."

"It is practically the same committee at last year, and didn't last year's committee refuse to call for witnesses, books and papers asked for by Mr. Ewing?"

Mr. Hinchliffe recalled the work of the Public Accounts Committee last year, asserting that the efforts of members to give evidence had been blocked by the direct refusal of the Committee to call necessary witnesses.

"Blocked investigation was charged," Mr. Hinchliffe said, "and its supporters blocked the production of the books of the Northern Construction Company and in doing that they went under the suspicion that things are not right." Mr. Hinchliffe asserted, "Even in places where it had not existed before, this caused suspicion and where suspicion already existed it was strengthened."

"There was a suspicion that the Northern Construction Company's books were being shipped out and that suspicion grew to certainty in many minds. All this has left an exceedingly bad taste in the mouths of the electors of this country. The Government has only itself to blame for not being open and straightforward in this matter."

Mr. Hinchliffe said he did not suppose that Rossiter would receive any better treatment before the Public Accounts Committee than the treatment received last year by Mr. Ewing.

Committee Is Partisan

"There should be no hint of partisanship in the tribunal which goes into this matter," Mr. Hinchliffe urged. "But the Public Accounts Committee is partisan almost from beginning to end," he declared, reading the names of the members of the committee. The only member who was not a Liberal or a Conservative, of course, was Mr. Menzies, of Comox, whose independence, he added, must be judged by his actions in the House.

This brought the Premier to his feet with the assertion that Mr. Hinchliffe was out of order in criticizing members of the House.

Mr. Speaker Pauline replied that the Victoria Member was only asserting that the Public Accounts Committee was not impartial.

"Well, that's the most serious reflection the honorable member could make," the Premier replied.

Mr. Hinchliffe did not see how the Conservative Members of the Committee could properly pass judgment of the P.G.E. charges. "And how can the Leader of the Opposition pass judgment because you are a Conservative?" the Premier challenged accordingly.

The money received by the Northern Construction Company from the Government, he pointed out, would be shown in the P.G.E. accounts.

Most Unsuitable Tribunal

"In short, the Public Accounts Committee is one of the most unsuitable tribunals possible," Mr. Hinchliffe proceeded, "I protest against the action of the Government as outlined in The Times."

"The Government made no such proposal," the Premier interjected.

"The Premier," Mr. Hinchliffe went on, "proposes to stop the campaign of falsehoods about P.G.E. matters by an independent audit. The P.G.E. charges have caused the reputation of the Government to sink with the railway to stink in this Province. Until the people are satisfied that the charges have been cleared up, they will not be content. I wonder if the Premier would have decided on an audit if he hadn't found that the information was leaking out anyway and the probe was to be made to the bottom, and whether he thought that it would be far better for him to have the direction of the probe than someone else? It seems to me that it is pretty nearly the position to-day."

"Surely the Directors of the P.G.E. have the right to order an audit if they wish to do so," the Premier protested. He added that he agreed with Mr. Hinchliffe that even an audit probably would not stop the campaign of falsehood being waged against him in connection with railway matters.

Doesn't Go to Root

"That's exactly what I'm afraid of," Mr. Hinchliffe replied. "An audit doesn't go to the root of the matter."

What was needed was an audit of the Northern Construction Company's books, Mr. Hinchliffe declared, and insisted that the Government planned an audit of the P.G.E. accounts. This would not get the facts of the case, he warned.

The Premier said he thought that the public wanted to know about the railway's finances.

"If the honorable member wants anything else he can bring in a resolution accordingly," the Premier challenged. The money received by the Northern Construction Company from the Government, he pointed out, would be shown in the P.G.E. accounts.

"Last year all facts of the money paid over to the Northern Construction Company were laid before the Public Accounts Committee," the Premier declared.

Sees Smoke Screen

"Isn't this audit an attempt to remove attention from the Northern Construction Company to the P.G.E.?" Mr. Hinchliffe demanded. "It looks like an effort to avoid the production of the Northern Construction Company's books. It looks as if this was to be done this year by strategy rather than the brute majority of last year."

"We are forced to the suspicion, the people are forced to the suspicion, that the Northern Construction Company's books contain something that may not be easily known," Mr. Hinchliffe affirmed.

This brought the Premier to his feet again. Looking squarely across at the Victoria Member, challenged him to make definite charges against the Government.

"Let him take the many course and prefer specific charges and the House can order an investigation if it sees fit," the Premier exclaimed.

"These charges are already under the consideration of the Premier," Mr. Hinchliffe replied.

"I would be very sorry to put Rossiter on the same status with a member of this House," the Premier remarked.

"Audit Not Satisfactory"

"The audit proposed by the Premier will not satisfy the people of this Province or the members on this side of the House," Mr. Hinchliffe declared. "Something more is required. We want to know about the Northern Construction Company's accounts and the efforts that were made and still are being made to block their production."

"When these books are produced, as they will some day be produced, if anything is lost or missing or if there is any suspicion that the books have been tampered with—in the meantime, then there is no power on earth can save the reputation of the gentlemen who have hindered their production!" Mr. Hinchliffe exclaimed.

"If the honorable member will charge definitely that the Northern Construction Company has done something wrong to warrant the production of the books, the initial live is with him," the Premier retorted.

"The initiative when brought up has been promptly squelched by the Premier and—"

"No definite charge of wrongdoing by the Northern Construction Company has been made," the Premier interrupted.

"This Government," the Premier asserted, "has blocked every effort to produce the books of the Northern Construction Company because there has been no charge of wrongdoing against that company requiring the production of the books."

"Urges Commission"

Mr. Hinchliffe argued that the P.G.E. audit could not touch many vital phases of the railway company's business.

"What we need is an enquiry by an independent commission," Mr. Hinchliffe declared. "An absolutely non-partisan commission. The Government and the Premier must have no share in choosing the commission," he warned, arguing that the House appoint an independent person who would name the commission. The commission, he said, should have access to all papers related to the P.G.E. and its dealings with the Northern Construction Company.

"If the Premier is honest in his attempt to end the campaign of falsehoods, and I agree it should be ended because it is hindering the development of British Columbia, the only proper and reasonable way he can do it is by such an investigation as I have outlined."

Demands Oliver's Resignation

"The Premier should go to the Lieutenant-Governor and say: 'I am charged with certain charges and I have publicly declared that if those charges are true I should be in a penitentiary. But they are not true. But to establish the truth of my statement, to prove that I have done my duty, and that no cent of money has been paid out illegally under me, I am going to ask for an independent commission. And if order that I may not be accused of using my position to influence judgment that I am not guilty—no, I will not say guilty, but until these charges have been proved untrue, here is my Portfolio. In the future, after these charges have been declared untrue, I will be ready as in the past to do my duty. If You Honor so desires, for the advancement and welfare of British Columbia."

"That," Mr. Hinchliffe concluded, "is the only position that will satisfy the people of British Columbia."

SEEING THEIR FIRST CHARLIE CHAPLIN COMEDY—FOR SOME THEIR FIRST MOVIE.—When the Canadian Progress Club recently treated the dwellers in the Aged Women's Home, Toronto, to a Charlie Chaplin picture, it was taken as a serious event. They were few smiles, although the picture was enjoyed. Many were just seeing Charlie for the first time, and some were seeing their first motion picture.

CARRYING WOUNDED AWAY.—This photo, taken recently in Berlin, shows a group of workers carrying a wounded woman to safety. While this was going on, fierce rioting was taking place by unemployed in many sections of the city and country.

IN BUFFALO BILL'S MEMORY.—Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, society leader and noted sculptress, is shown with Smoky, chosen from among the horses on the ranch at Cody, Wyo., of the late Colonel William Cody (Buffalo Bill). Smoky is going to pose for Mrs. Whitney during her modelling of a statue of the famous scout. George Coleman, a real cowboy, came with the horse.

LESTER A. PIERCE AND SOME OF HIS "PLAYMATES."

—Every morning when Lester A. Pierce gets up, he sees snakes. Crawling all about his bedroom, fifty or more of the varmints entwined themselves in loving embrace on the furniture, waiting meekly for their breakfast. He is educational director of the Toledo Boy Scouts. Gathering snakes has been Pierce's hobby for years. And with a flock of them crawling about his room at night he never once has missed a wink of slumber. One day at a church luncheon he surprised attendants by uncoiling a six-foot blue racer which he had coiled inside his coat, and playfully dropped the scurrying length of sinew around the neck of the flabbergasted minister. "Most things said about the dangerous qualities of snakes are untrue," Pierce says. "There are only a comparatively few poisonous reptiles in the world." In his collection are black snakes, fox snakes, blue racers, water snakes, garter snakes and others of which he is very fond.

CHAMPION SALOON CLOSER OF AMERICA.—Mayor William E. Dever, of Chicago, with an ironical inscription posted to his headquarters in the window of a closed saloon. In three weeks Mayor Dever has plugged the flow of bars and breweries, revoked the licenses of more than 1,100 soft drink saloons, influenced the voluntary closing of 1,500 more "for repairs," put guards over all the breweries, retired six police captains, cured thousands of cases of blindness on the police force—and keeps on unabated. Ministers, churches and moral reformers are holding meetings all over the city and passing resolutions praising the mayor. "The mayor is not a question of wet or dry, but simply of obedience to law," Mayor Dever says. "Law enforcement by a public official should be part of his work-a-day life. We tried palliative measures, but they were ineffective. Absolute enforcement seemed the only solution. The order is effective permanently; there won't be any more beer."

TAKE the FAMILY to California via THE ADMIRAL LINE

When the first Fall rains presage the advent of Winter in the North, and threaten to dampen the cheeriest spirits, bundle up the whole blessed family and take them to California—where they can live as you want them to live—in comfort, health, and happiness.

Here where Winter is unknown, the kiddies can romp and play to their heart's content in a great sun-kissed, health-giving out-of-doors; the grown-ups, eager to prolong the playtime season, can relax and rest up in ease and comfort. You owe it to the health and happiness of your self and family.

Ask for a copy of "California Winter Outings" which tells you about this great Winter playground; also about the low round trip fares in connection with the delightful coastwise ocean service of the Admiral Line.

FINDS CATTLE BUSINESS GOOD

Expect Mild Weather in Interior and Big Beef Crop Next Spring

Thomas McKenzie, Commissioner of Grazing has returned to Victoria after an extended trip throughout the ranges of the Central Interior. He reports that range conditions in the cattle-raising sections are excellent and that great interest is being taken by the stockmen in the carrying out of the Government's annual range improvement programme.

Where stockmen have been diligent in getting a full use of the excellent growth of timber feed this season the lower ranges are in shape to carry cattle along in good condition until feeding commences, Mr. McKenzie says.

General weather conditions this Winter are not likely to be severe and with the heavy hay supplies now on hand cattlemen can feed well, bringing the animals through in good shape to take advantage of the better Spring prices that will prevail for decent stuff.

The price-fixing legislation in the Argentine, if not remedied at once, will have a disastrous effect on beef exports from that country, Mr. McKenzie believes. This in connection with short supplies elsewhere is quite likely to have a wholesome effect on prices for good beef in the coming Spring. British Columbia cattlemen should plan to take advantage of this. Good bulls, good Winter feeding and high calf fallings will make British Columbia ranches profitable even at present prices, the Grazing Commissioner asserts.

EX-FIGHTING MEN MAKE XMAS TOYS

Veterans at Red Cross Work Shop Prepare For Busy Holiday Rush

Former fighting men of the Canadian Expeditionary Force, now disabled to such an extent that they are unable to battle for themselves in the ordinary labor market, are staging as courageous a battle as ever they did on the fields of Flanders in the busy Red Cross workshop on Johnson Street. Thirty ex-soldiers, all seriously injured in the war, are using the same ingenuity which they used during resting spells on active service in fashioning souvenirs from shell cases or any other material that came to hand in designing Christmas toys to delight the youngsters of Victoria, and are making a strenuous bid to turn out articles for the Christmas shopper that they can deliver at the same price as their able-bodied competitors.

The Red Cross workshop just presents the appearance of a warehouse for St. Nicholas himself, and with all the speed that their disabilities will permit, the men are turning out a variety of toys with which they hope to secure a good portion of the Christmas trade, both wholesale and retail. Manager Stanley Oskell is loud in his praise of the generous support the stores of the city are giving the Red Cross shop, and points out that this assistance is vital to the continuation of the employment for the injured men.

Most of the toys are made of wood or basketwork. Toy engines are being turned out by the score and finished off in the paint shop. Next wheelbarrows, dot cars, carriages, scooters, wagons and cradles are among the variety of toys being manufactured.

Other articles suitable for Christmas gifts are also being made for the holiday trade, including mah jong tables, tea trays, lamp stands, wood baskets and many other novel articles which would make an attractive Christmas present.

CAN MUNICIPAL CREDIT BE HURT BY SLANDER?

Can a municipality succeed in an action for slander against its credit? This fine point of law is threatened in Burnaby, where Reeve A. K. McLean was in Victoria yesterday. The Burnaby Council expressed itself, at its meeting on Monday, determined to take proceedings against any person making statements which might affect the sale of bonds or the financial standing of the corporation.

The question was raised by the Reeve, who complained of statements being circulated to the effect that the reserves behind Burnaby obligations had been or are being dissipated.

In rebutting this allegation Mr. McLean is quoted as presenting a financial statement from the treasurer and municipal auditor refuting the allegations absolutely.

Was Almost Nervous Wreck Says Wincarnis Restored Her Health

"Ten months ago," writes Mrs. Elizabeth McGuire, 265 West 101st Street, New York City, "I began to lose my strength. My household duties became burdensome. I felt exhausted after the slightest exertion. Then my nerves got so bad that at the slightest noise I used to tremble, my legs would shake and my heart beat violently, causing me to gasp for breath. One afternoon a friend called to see me and she was shocked at my pitiable condition. She went out and bought a bottle of 'Wincarnis' and gave me a dose right away. I continued taking 'Wincarnis' three times a day and its effect has been almost miraculous. Gradually but surely my strength came back, a color came into my cheeks, my nerves grew steady and it seemed as if I had taken a new lease on life. To-day I am a very happy woman because I am well."

Be guided by Mrs. Elizabeth McGuire's experience. Go to your druggist, now, and get a bottle of 'Wincarnis.' Remember that 'Wincarnis' has been recommended by over 10,000 physicians who have found it invaluable in such cases and who have spoken of it in praise of the preparation.

'Wincarnis' is sold by all leading druggists at $1.50 a bottle. Write to-day for free illustrated booklet, "Hundred Per Cent Health—How to obtain it," to Coleman & Co., "Canada" Ltd., 67 Portland St., Toronto.

SECRETARY MAKING TOUR OF INSPECTION

Major J. Chadwick Brooks, of Hudson's Bay Co., Expected Here Saturday

Victoria on Saturday will receive a visit from Major J. Chadwick Brooks, O.B.E., of London, England, secretary of the Hudson's Bay Company, who is inspecting the British Columbia stores of the company. Major Brooks is now in Vancouver. It is the intention of the Major to be in Canada for three months. He has held the present appointment for a year, succeeding the former secretary, F. C. Ingram.

Major Brooks was so severely wounded when serving with the London Scottish in the war that he was invalided out of the service. He went to Russia as an ordnance officer and later was engaged in garrison work in Ireland.

HEAD OF ORDER TO ARRIVE FRIDAY

Supreme Master Workman to Pay Brief Visit Here

The Supreme Master Workman of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, Will M. Narvis, accompanied by Mrs. Narvis, will arrive in the city at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon, after having spent two busy days at Vancouver.

The reception committee, representative of the local lodge, headed by Mrs. James M. Stansby, Grand Foreman of the B. C. Grand Lodge, will meet the visitors at the C.P.R. dock, and escort them to the Empress Hotel, where they will be given an automobile drive. At 6 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Narvis will be entertained at dinner at the Empress Hotel. At 8 o'clock there will be a joint meeting of the three city lodges, at which a number of candidates will be initiated, and the Supreme Master Workman will address the members present.

As Mr. Narvis's reputation as a speaker has preceded him there will doubtless be a large crowd present. After the lodge meeting there will be a supper. The visitors' stay in the city will be brief, as they are scheduled to leave at 10:30 a.m. on Saturday.

WILL SEND GROUP TO ADVOCATE SURVEY

Vancouver School Board Considers Securing Action on Education Inquiry

Since the Vancouver School Board secured endorsement by the British Columbia School Trustees Association of the proposed "Education Survey," it has not been idle. Quite a number of public bodies have endorsed the proposal, some on the ground that the teachers themselves are behind the project, others on the ground that the survey is the latest resolution of approval. There have been few refusals reported, since the chairman of the Vancouver Board, Mr. Pettipiece, has urged the project to the trustees of the school board when the question is urged upon Ministers.

It has been decided to send a delegation to Victoria in favor of the project before the estimates for the Education Department are made up. The Vancouver City Council has selected a delegation to accompany the school board when the question is urged upon Ministers.

TODAY I AM REAL WELL

So Writes Woman After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Jamestown, N.Y.—"I was nervous, easily excited and discouraged and had no ambition. Part of the time I was not able to sit up as I suffered with pains in my back and with weakness. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, both the liquid and tablet forms, and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash for inflammation. Today I am real well and run a rooming house and do the work. I recommend your medicine to every woman who complains, and you may use my letter to help any one else. I am passing through the change of life now and I keep the Vegetable Compound in the house, ready to take when I feel the need of it."—Mrs. ALICE D. DAVIS, 203 W. Second St., Jamestown, N.Y.

Often some slight derangement may cause a general upset condition of the whole system, indicated by such symptoms as nervousness, backache, lack of ambition and general weakness. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will be found a mild medicine for such troubles. In many cases it has removed the cause of the trouble.

WILL STAND BEHIND SOLDIER ADVOCATE

G.W.V.A. Promises Support to G. H. Sedger; New Members Admitted

Every assistance to the soldier advocate for Vancouver Island will be given by the Great War Veterans' Association. It was decided at the general meeting held Tuesday night. Several cases have been turned over to the advocate, George H. Sedger, and the meeting went on record as being in favor of giving Mr. Sedger every support. This action follows some criticism passed upon the choice for the position from the names before the Dominion Command, but the vote indicated that the association entertained no animosity towards the appointees.

Various suggestions were made for raising funds to maintain the Dominion command, and a recommendation will go forward that a ten cent levy on all members in Canada be made to raise the parent office on a sound financial basis.

Poppy Ball
Satisfaction was expressed at the generous support being given the poppy ball at the Empress Hotel last Monday. Replies indicate that the third annual dance will be a greater success than any of the previous successful functions. Twelve new applicants were admitted to membership.

SOCIETY PRESENTS BOOKS TO LIBRARY

The regular gathering of the Anti-Vivisection Society on Tuesday night was made an auspicious one. The secretary reported that one of the board had addressed the Ministerial Association lately on the question of vivisection; and that a letter had been addressed to the Minister of Education, asking what steps were being taken to protect the interests of children in infectious disease matters.

Reports had been received from English, Canadian and Australian press regarding the use of insulin. Mrs. Farrell, president of the New York Vivisection Investigation League, notified the board that the name of the society had now been changed to the International Conference for the Investigation of Vivisection. It was decided to hold a rummage sale in the third week of November, to augment the funds of the organization.

Present Library Books
Two of the most recent English publications have been purchased by the society and presented to the Public Library. These are Dr. John Shaw's "Cancer Problem," giving scientific findings on the question of the disease and urging the uselessness of vivisection as a means of combating it. The other book is the long-expected publication, "Béchamp or Pasteur" which is founded on hitherto unpublished manuscript in the possession of Dr. M. R. Leverton, of Baltimore.

The society heard with sincere regret of the passing of its friends, F. E. Fox, of Victoria, and J. W. Bengough, of Toronto. The visit to this city of Dame Clara Butt, an honorary member of the British Union for the Abolition of Vivisection, was noted with satisfaction.

"WEE MCGREGOR" IS FAVORED POTATO FROM BULKLEY VALLEY

Through the interest of A. E. Richards, supervisor of the Dominion Department of Agriculture, the experimental plot in Central British Columbia, Bulkley Valley is to have a good exhibit at the fair held here next week. In addition to several private exhibits, eight farmers of Bulkley Valley have united for an exhibit in the district potato display, the principal competition at the show. These men are V. G. Jones and A. Peacock, of Bulkley; J. Rosses, E. C. Barger, J. Bourgon and J. Warren, of Bulkley; and George Kidd and E. Woodward, of Smithers. This competition calls for a display of one kind of potato by eight farmers and the variety selected for Bulkley Valley is the Wee McGregor. There will also be displays from this district in the class for certified seed potatoes, these coming from the experimental plots. The Northern British Columbia Agricultural and Industrial Association, of Prince Rupert, has become interested in the potato show to the extent of agreeing to pay all transportation charges in connection with exhibits sent to the provincial potato show.

C.N.R. WILL NOT COLLECT TAXES

New Westminster, Nov. 8.—The Canadian National Railway has declined to accede to the request of New Westminster that it should deduct the amount of poll and road tax from the pay of its employees residing in New Westminster and, after deducting ten per cent—for collection charges, hand the balance over to the city treasurer. The Canadian Pacific and other employers of labor follow this plan, and the city is under the impression that the law requires employers to make the deduction from their pay roll if so required. The C.N.R. officials, however, intimate that the question has been referred to the court there, and until officially adjudicated upon no action will be taken here. The company also raises the point that, under its agreement with the city, it is exempt from taxation here till next year. As there is evidently a general misunderstanding in the matter the city solicitor will explain the circumstances and the requirements of the case to the Canadian National officials.

DRUGGISTS' DANCE

On Wednesday, November 14, the Victoria druggists will entertain their friends at an informal dance in the K. of C. Hall, Government Street, from 8 until 1 o'clock. This will be the first dance held under the auspices of the local druggists this season, and no effort is being spared to make it a success. Ray Kinloch's dance orchestra will supply the music. Supper arrangements are in the hands of Messrs. Tigue and Wheeler. A few tickets are available for the affair, and may be procured at city drug stores.

"I Can Now Do My Work Without Feeling Tired"

Mrs. A. Moffatt, Roxton Falls, Que., writes:

"I suffered from a run-down system and nervous debility. I could not sleep or rest at night, and felt so weak I could not walk any distance. I took several tonics, but they only helped me while I was taking them. Mother advised me to take Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and I felt great benefit from the first box, and continued taking several boxes. To-day I feel like a new woman, and am able to do my work without that dreadful tired feeling."
